John Sears Wilson

Birth: Mar. 12, 1783
Madison County
Virginia, USA
Death: Apr. 3, 1869
Council Bluffs
Pottawattamie County
Iowa, USA

Please note that the dates of birth/death come from another family tree on Ancestry and are NOT confirmed. We do know that John was born about 1783 to 1785 and that he died sometime after 1860 as he is found on the 1860 Fulton County, Illinois census. We had that he was born in Madison County, Kentucky which was actually Lincoln County or Madison County, Virginia when John was born - see info below.

John Sears Wilson was actually born in Virginia as Kentucky did not become a state until 1792. Prior to that it was a part of the Commonwealth [i.e. state] of Virginia. Initially, the part of Virginia that now makes up Kentucky was called Fincastle County as follows: "In the year 1772, Fincastle County became the frontier county of Virginia, extending to the Mississippi, it embraced all of what is now Kentucky, and a part of Southwestern Virginia. The county of Fincastle was dissolved by legislative enactment of the State of Virginia December 31, 1776 at which time a portion of it became Kentucky County, Virginia. In May, 1780, Kentucky County [Virginia] was subdivided into three counties: Fayette, Jefferson, and Lincoln. ... Fayette County embraced all of that part of the present State of Kentucky east and north of the Kentucky River and its Middle Fork. ..."

So Fincastle County, Virginia was dissolved in 1776 and part of it became Kentucky County, Virginia. Kentucky Co., Virginia was then subdivided in 1780 to Fayette, Jefferson and Lincoln Counties, Virginia in May of 1780.

In 1785, Lincoln County, Virginia was later subdivided into several counties - Mercer and Madison Counties, Virginia (Lincoln Co. was subdivided further, but later in the 1790's - I'm only going to mention Mercer and Madison here). So Madison County, Virginia was formed in 1785.

Which means if John was born in 1783 and the location was given as Madison Co., Kentucky, then he would actually have been born in Lincoln County, Virginia which two years later became Madison County, Virginia and in 1792, became Madison County, Kentucky. Note that findagrave does not list a Lincoln Co., Virginia so I went with Madison County which could also have been the birth place of John.

Fincastle Co., Virginia [1772]

1776 .. a portion becomes Kentucky Co., Virginia

1780 .. a part of Kentucky Co. becomes Lincoln Co., Virginia

1785 .. a part of Lincoln Co. becomes Madison Co., Virginia

1792 .. Madison Co., Virginia becomes Madison Co., Kentucky

John married Nancy LINN (1785-1848) on 9 April 1808 in Madison County, Kentucky [source: Linda S. Barber Brooks, Missouri Marriages to 1850, Vol I (Ingmire Publications, 1983)].

John and Nancy had the following children:

Mary Ann (1807-1856), Elender (1809-1828), Naomi (1811-1886), James Lynn (1814-1863), Joseph Simeon (1816-1881), Joicy Ann (1819-), John Patrick (1822-1909), Simeon M. (1824-1875), Benjamin Alfred (1827-1878), Henry Miller (1830-1832) and William (1831-).

As John and Nancy were not married until 1808, Norman Peter's believes Mary Ann may have been John's from a prior marriage. Her date of birth is listed as 22 Feb 1807 as found in the Wilson family bible.

After Nancy's death in 1848, John Sears Wilson remarried to Sarah Keeling (1800-1882) in Illinois. They did not have any children together.

Mary "Polly" Patty Jervis

Birth: 1803
Newberry County
South Carolina, USA

Death: 1873
Carroll County
Indiana, USA

Mary was the daughter of James Patty (1772 - 1844) and Mary Cook Patty (1779 - 1850). Mary was a devout Quaker and moved with her family from South Carolina to Ohio because of religious persecution. In Butler County, Ohio she met and married Thomas Jervis on April 8, 1824. They migrated to Democrat Township in Carroll County, Indiana. They were the parents of Isaiah, Eliza Ann, James, Mary Jane, Delilah, Jesse, James and Cathryn Jervis. She passed away in 1873 in Carroll County, Indiana. Mary was survived by her husband, Thomas Jervis (DOB: 11/19/1796, DOD: 1892).

John and Nancy appeared on the following censuses:

1810 - Madison, Madison County, Kentucky
1820 - Bath County, Kentucky
1830 - Morgan County, Indiana
1840 - Fulton County, Illinois

The Wilson's moved around quite a bit - most often following Nancy's Linn relatives including her parents, Patrick and Mary Linn. Some of their moves are mentioned in a write-up about their daughter, Naomi WILSON Beaver and include:

abt 1811 - moved to Knox Co., KY from Madison Co., KY

abt 1815 - Moved back to Madison Co., KY from Knox County, Kentucky

abt 1817 - Moved from Madison Co., KY to Bath Co., KY

abt 1821 - Moved from Bath Co., KY back to Madison Co., KY

abt 1825 - Moved from Madison Co., Kentucky to Morgan County, Indiana. This is one of those moves where John and Nancy followed her family. Her brother, James, had moved to Morgan County, Indiana by April 1823 as he is listed as being on the first Petit Jury for that area. Her parents and sister and brother followed James in 1825 as found on Nancy's father's pension application for his service in the American Revolutionary War.

On 20 May 1835, John purchased land from the U.S. Government in Harrison Township, Morgan County, Indiana (per the BLM records).

Nancy's father, Patrick Linn, had died on 7 April 1829 in Madison Township, Morgan County, Indiana and we believe her mother, Mary and brother, James, had also died by 1830 as they are not found on census records. We believe that living near Nancy's family kept her and John in Indiana, but after their deaths, they moved again. However, Nancy's brother William was still alive and living in Indiana in 1837, but he also died before 1840 (I am descended from William).

Sometime about 1836, John and Nancy once again moved their family. This time, they moved to Fulton County, Indiana - this is from the write-up on their daughter Naomi who stated that the family moved there when she was 25 years old. They are found on the 1840 census living in Fulton County.

John's wife, Nancy LINN, died on 17 Feb 1848 in Fulton County and is buried in the Bybee-Hipple Cemetery (also known as the Bybee Station Cemetery). Her headstone still stood in 2010, but I have been told a farmer went through the cemetery and razed everything to the ground (which I sincerely hope is not true).

Also buried in the Bybee-Hipple Cemetery is the first wife of one of John and Nancy's sons, James Lynn Wilson. Cynthia C. MURPHY was the first wife of James Lynn Wilson. Cynthia died in 1851 and is buried in Bybee-Hipple Cemetery along with daughter, Nancy E. Wilson (Nov 1845 - 17 Oct 1847).

In addition, also buried in the cemetery are three children of a daughter of John and Nancy LINN Wilson. Their daughter, Joicy Ann WILSON Robertson, had three children that died young and are buried in this cemetery: William C. (1840-1848), Mary E. (1842-1848) and Lucinda (1844-1846).

After Nancy's death, John remarried to Sarah Keeling on 22 March 1849 in Illinois (probably in Fulton County). This is per the Linn book written by Norman Peters and is confirmed in the journal written by Henry Allyn (see below).

Sometime between 1851 and 1852 - or thereabouts - John and Sarah moved to Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie County, Iowa. John is mentioned as 'old Bro. Wilson' in Henry Allyn's journal.

John had moved to Council Bluffs along with several of his sons (John Patrick, Simeon and William Wilson). However, in March of 1853, several of the Wilson family members started an epic move to Oregon along the Oregon Trail. John Sears Wilson stayed in Iowa where we thought he died but we've found further evidence that he moved back to Fulton County, Illinois. His daughter, Naomi WILSON Beaver had also moved to Council Bluffs and I believe that sons Simeon M. Wilson and William Wilson also stayed in Iowa (William was living in Ottumwa, Wapello Co., Iowa as of 4 April 1853). Simeon was still there as of the 1870 census and a Wilson descendant indicated he died in 1875 probably in Iowa.

We knew that one of John and Nancy's children had stayed in Illinois, but we weren't sure which one. However an Ancestry member contacted me in January 2017 and pointed me to an 1860 Liverpool, Fulton Co., Illinois census that John and Nancy's son, Benjamin Alfred Wilson, was listed on. Along with Benjamin's family was a John Wilson aged 66 and an older Wilson woman aged 60. Enlarging the census it looks like the older woman's name is Sarah so we believe it was John Sears Wilson and his 2nd wife, Sarah KEELING Wilson listed on the census with Benjamin Wilson.

This means that after John had moved to Iowa, he returned at some point after 1853 to Illinois. This raises the question of where John died; did he go back to Council Bluffs and died there or did he remain in Illinois and died there? Given that his son Benjamin moved to Oregon sometime after 1870, I would expect that John had died before 1870. Also, John's wife, Sarah, was living with her step-granddaughter Eliza Ann WILSON Bennett and her husband Joe in Deerfield, Fulton County, Illinois in 1870. John's son, Benjamin (Eliza's father) was living next to Sarah and the Bennett's. Sarah died in 1882 in Fulton Co., Illinois.

So John Sears Wilson most likely died sometime after the 1860 census was taken but before the 1870 census was taken and probably died in Fulton County, Illinois and not in Iowa.

OREGON TRAIL:

John and Nancy's children left Fulton Co., Illinois and Iowa for Oregon country. The group consisted of: James Lynn Wilson and John Patrick Wilson and their families including James Lynn Wilson's father-in-law, Henry Allyn, who kept a daily journal of their trip from Illinois to Oregon.

The Wilson's and Allyn's left Illinois on 28 Mar 1853 and arrived in Oregon on Tuesday, 6 Sept 1853. Henry Allyn left an amazing journal of their trials and tribulations encountered on their almost six month journey and it is a worthwhile read for any Wilson or Allyn descendant.

The Wilson family did pretty good in Oregon, but tragedy struck one of them as one of John and Nancy's sons was murdered in Oregon.

Benjamin Alfred Wilson had moved to Oregon some time after the 1870 census and after the rest of his family had left Illinois and Iowa. Ben was out picking berries in LaGrande, Union Co., Oregon when he went missing on 14 August 1878. His family and friends searched for him for nine days before his brother, Joseph, finally found his body. He had been murdered - shot in the back and his head cut off with no skin or flesh left on his skull. His body had been hidden in some bushes with brush piled over it.

Benjamin's son-in-law, Joshua Coffman, was arrested and charged with Ben's murder. Joshua had been the last to see him alive and they had had an altercation at some point. Joshua was tried for Ben's murder but was acquitted due to lack of evidence.

We would really like to know where John Sears Wilson is buried and would appreciate hearing from anyone who may know.

BYBEE'S GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN IN FULTON

By George Magenheimer

I know now where Bybee Station was located, I also know that the Journal Star is well read in Fulton County.

The column of two weeks ago which wondered if any one ever had heard of Bybee, near where Edgar Lee Masters taught school in 1889, brought 29 letters and seven phone calls with information about Bybee, despite the fact that any vestige of a village or station there has long disappeared.

There may no longer be a Bybee Station but there are plenty of people who remember it or have atlases or histories which tell about it. And they all wanted to help in finding its location.

Bybee was a station on the old Fulton County Narrow Gauge Railway (later the Havana-Galesburg branch of the, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy) about midway between Fiatt and Fairview.

I spent an interesting afternoon a week ago with Mrs. Carrie May of Fiatt, who is the granddaughter of the David Bybee who I surmised two weeks ago might have been the man after whom the station mentioned by Masters was named.

I was right. David Bybee deeded land to the Marrow Gauge railway in 1880 for the station between Fiatt and Fairview. The Narrow Gauge railroad was built by a group of Lewistown men who wanted to make access to their city easier from the northern part of Fulton County. The 1879 history of Fulton County says they wanted to do this because too much business from Fulton County was going to Havana. Other sources say the principal reason was to help prevent Canton from getting the county seat away from Lewistown.

They built the Narrow Gauge, a foot and eight inches narrower than standard railroad, because it was cheaper. The history says their costs were about $3000 a mile. Masters says the railroad north of Fairview wound around through the hollows of the Spoon River country because the builders wanted to avoid as much building of grades as possible. This is probably true because the road was nick-named the "Peavine" because it wound around so much. All of it except the section between Lewistown and Fairview has now been abandoned and that part serves only to haul coal from the Fulton strip mines.

There was a switch track at Bybee (the widened right-of-way can still be seen) where they loaded grain and cattle and a man named Breckenridge ran a grocery store. There was also a postoffice and a blacksmith shop which burned down. David Bybee, who owned a thousand acres of land, raised fine horses, and had a race track on his land. A time card Mrs. May showed me indicates there were two trains a day through Bybee in each direction in 1905. Later that year the Burlington took over the Narrow Gauge. It widened it to standard gauge about five years later and by 1913, according to a schedule sent me by railroader Robert E. Lawler of Bureau, Ill., there was just one train a day through Bybee. Mrs. May says the station was moved to Havana. Several persons who wrote to me remember seeing a sign "Bybee", but there is nothing there today but the widened right-of-way and a grove of catalpa trees.

David Bybee died Dec. 10, 1883, at the age of 64 and lies buried in a deserted cemetery, with his two wives, just a little distance west of the site of the station. When he died he left a farm to each of his eight children. One of them, also named David Bybee, inherited the farm around the station, and was the father of Mrs. May. That farm is still in the Bybee family. Two of the farms willed to children of the first David Bybee were in Peoria County.

David Bybee the second was the youngest of the children of the first David, being born in 1865. In 1899 he was the director of the Hipple School, which was about a mile west of the station. That must have been the school at which Edgar Lee Masters had his unhappy teaching experience. He describes it in part:

"The country about was dreary and silent, level and uninteresting; and here for $35 a month I was entering upon a profitless experience. The farmer's wife (where he boarded a mile north of the school) prepared luncheons for me of fried ham and boiled eggs, of sodden cake and bread spread with strawberry jam which gave me excruciating indigestion. I had to sleep in a sort of loft where there was no heat, and where through rifts in the shingles snow sifted on my face during the night. The weather was cold that autumn, and there was bitter weather by mid-November."

"During the school hours I read Homer while the students were getting their lessons, keeping my book behind a large geography. I had no interesting pupils. My life at the farm house was incredibly dull. When I got home there was nothing to do but sit in the kitchen, the only warm room in the house, and talk with this farmer, who was suspicious and bad natured. His wife was equally disagreeable."

He gave up after three months and went back to Lewis-town to read law.

A Hipple school building, successor to the one in which Masters must have taught, still stands but it has been moved across the road and is being used as a residence.

The second David Bybee had nine children, all of whom are still living, eight of them in Fulton County. Mrs. May, the oldest of them, is 75. She and her late husband, Charles May, used to carry the mail over the muddy hills around Fiatt in a Model T. I'm sure they found the country much more interesting than did sour Masters. It didn't seem level and uninteresting to me when Mr. & Mrs. George Pilkington of Fiatt escorted me to the station and the Hipple School site and the old cemetery, especially when my wife climbed a barbed wire fence in high heels and a tight skirt.

And so, Bybee. You know the funny part about this is that after I got all the letters telling me about it I found out that a longtime friend, Lewis Sedgwick of Peoria, grew up in the Fiatt-Bybee neighborhood and knew about it. And worse than that, I looked at the 1920 road map I had at home and there was "BYBEE" on it as big as life. It's also on the latest Fulton County highway map of the state highway division, sent me by Glenn Worner, although it wasn't on a former map.

Shirley,

It is so nice to compare notes with someone else looking for Foots. We are few and far between!

I think you're right about Naoma being Elijah's daughter but the 1840 census only shows one girl 5/10 and one girl 10/15.

So where does Naoma fit? She'd only be six. Could her name be Adeline Naoma? There's no marriage for an Adeline.

Do you think Adeline who is living with Zachariah in 1860 could be a niece or a cousin? I might have jumped to a wrong conclusion that Adeline is his sister.

I looked at the 1850 census and it seems to me that Clenovia's name is Clenoria. It looks to me like the census taker writes a modified R. What do you think?

I found a marriage for Elmyra Foot and Benjamin French and they are in the 1860 Fulton County Illinois census. She was born about 1848, same as Clenoria. Could she have simplified her name? or is this another person?

One question leads to another!

You asked do I have the Murphy/Sedgewick book. I have to tell you a secret, I AM OBSESSED WITH GENEALOGY. There, I've said it!

I live in Fulton County, Illinois, I am a member of the genealogical society, I have their 1830, 1840, 1850, 1860, and 1870 census books, I have their marriage books up to 1910, I have their Murphy books up to 1957, I have most of their cemetery books and am in the process of buying the last 4 for a complete set!

The Foot family is my father's genealogy, he died in 1980, and the Brown family is my mother's genealogy, she will be 82 years old in June. I keep trying to find ancestors of a direct line back as far as I can. The Brown family is in Virginia in the late 1700's and Elijah Foot is in Kentucky in 1805. I am very proud that both sides of my family has ancestors whose lives coincide with the history of the United States. I'm also very proud to tell you that my granddaughter Jackie lives in Phoenix and is a Mormon. She just recently graduated from college with a bachelors degree in Human Services and joins us as a certified genealogy nut!

The only thing I can tell you to look for is the Kentucky census or tax records for Madison County, Kentucky about 1800 to 1820. Other Foot families in this county could tell us Elijah's parents and brother's and sisters. It might be wise to make copies of the pages for reference later. You know there will be questions! A man between the ages of 20 and 45 with a son born in 1805 is a suspect for Elijah's father.

As you check the library there, I will be pouring over books here to see what I can find. I probably should break off the Foot family from the Brown family in Ancestry and expand it. I might do that.

Good hunting.

Shirley,

My father's grandfather was Ambrose Nelson Foote (with and without the final e!)

His father was John Nelson Foote, born 1833 in Indiana, died 1897.

I like to try and track backward from what I know so here is what I did.

I searched the 1860 census and there was a listing as follows:

Zachariah	33	Kentucky
Lucy	42	Ohio
John	27	Indiana
Mary	11	Illinois
Adeline	24	Indiana

I searched the 1850 census and there was no John Foot in Fulton County.

There was:

Zachariah	23
Lucy	32
Mary	1

There was also:

Elijah Foot	45	Ohio
Mary A.	43	Ohio
William	10	ILL
Clenona (Clenovia)	2	ILL

In the 1840 Fulton County Illinois census, there's a listing as follows:

Elijah	30-40
Son 5/10		John would have been 7
Son 15/20		Zachariah would have been 17
Daughter 5/10		Adeline would have been 5
Daughter 10/15		Nancy would have been 13

I don't have a piece of paper that says Elijah was my great-great-grandfather, but he was the only one in Fulton County in the 1840 census and the other pieces of the puzzle fit.

There are also a few mysteries.

The 1860 census has a Martha A. Foot age 30 born Tenn.

The Marriages include:

Emily Foote married to Asahel Bandle Oct 5, 1850.
Naona Foot married to Franklin Napper Aug 11 1850
Elmyra Foot married to Benjamin French Jun 12 1864
Charlotte Foot married to Joseph Wheeler Aug 5 1869

There are also 4 marriages for Elijah Foot:

Elijah Foot and Emily Howard Apr 26, 1857
Elijah Foot and Martha Ann Daugherty Aug 28 1859
Elijah Foot and Mrs. Barbara Wheeler Jul 24 1865
Elijah Foot and Susan Taylor Aug 10, 1868

More than one or the same man? Surely one man wouldn't have such bad luck.

That's about all I know.

Are any of these names familiar to you?

Hi Mary Lou -

I do volunteer lookups and I found some data on a French family who might be yours. Some of it is confusing but maybe you can figure it out.

1850 census - Banner Twp, Fulton Co IL - household # 76:

FRENCH, Strawther 43 KY farmer
 Elizabeth 20 IN Malvina 20 IN
 Ellen J. 16 KY
 Mary J. 14 KY
 John P. 13 IL
 Benjamin F. 8 IL

1860 census - Liverpool Twp - Fulton Co, IL - household # 508:

FRENCH, Strather 55 KY farmer
 Elisabeth 55 KY
 Benjamin 18 IL
 Eliza 16 IL

household # 509:

FRENCH, John T. 22 IL farmer
 Rosannah 14 IL

household # 510:

MORTON, Richard 41 KY farmer $3100
 Eliza A. 27 IL
 Mary 8 IL
 Perry 3 IL
 Charlotte 1 IL

MEEKER, James 23 IL farmer $100

There is also a Geo. Conley family in that neighborhood from KY

1870 census - Liverpool Twp, Fulton Co, IL - household # 163:

FRENCH, Benjamin 26 IN Elmira 21 IL
 John T. 4 IL
 Mary A. 1mo. IL

Benjamin French married Almira Foote June 12, 1864 Fulton Co, IL per Illinois Statewide Marriage Index

Next is an abstracted obit from THE GLASFORD GAZETTE - a weekly newspaper in Peoria Co - next to Fulton County:

FRENCH, Wm. Franklin - b 5 May 1842 Canton, IL; m 1864 Miss Almira FOOTE - 11 children; he died 13 April 1910 Bartonville Asylum ; buried Orendorff

Cemetery - Fulton Co, IL.

Surviving - widow; children - Thomas French, Canton; Lonzo French, Middle Grove; Mrs. Nellie ADKINSON, Bradford, IL; Mrs. Belle VANDORN, Spring Valley; William & Charlie French at home (1 daughter Mrs. Mary GAYEN/GARNES? died aged 39yrs & 1 son Frank was killed by train aged 11yrs & 3 children died infancy.)

One brother, Thomas French survives. Son Lonzo had 2 children - Ruth & John French (Issue - 14 April 1910.

Elmira and Charley are buried at Orendorff Cemetery for sure - but I don't find Benjamin has a stone - ref: Cemetery Inscriptions of Fulton County, IL - published by FCHGS.

The name "William" for the above obit might be a type setting error?
There is a Benjamin French with wife Hattie E. and 2 kids in Astoria, IL for 1880 census - but the ages and birthplaces of parents do not fit.
If there are any question, just ask.

Hello Mary Lou,

I found a little more on this FRENCH family and wanted to add to what Lyde has already found..

1880 Census Fulton County IL
 Orion Twp. Breeds Station

#142/146

FRENCH, Benjamin 38 IL. KY. KY. sawmill

Elmira 33 IL. KY. KY.

John T. 14 IL. IL. IL.

Mary ? 11 IL. IL. IL.

Elonzo 10 IL. IL. IL.

Rachel 6 IL. IL. IL.

Isabelle 3 IL. IL. IL.

I don't have the index for 1900 and 1910 census. :(

1920 census Fulton Co. IL. Orion twp.

#197/201

FRENCH, Charles E. 36 IL. IL. IL. labor coal mine

Bessie (wife) 36 IL. IL. IL.

Colling, Leata (step-da.) 15 IL. IL. IL.

**Colling is readable but it is marked out***

FRENCH, Elmira 71 (mother) wd. IL. IL. IL.

1930 Census Fulton Co. IL. Orion twp.

ED 29-38 Sh.4B

FRENCH, Almyra 81 wd. IL. KY. KY.

Charles (son) 43 S IL. OH. IL. day labor

Ray (gr.son) 13 S IL. IL. IL.

are there 2 sons for Elmira named Charles? this a little confusing. Also wanted to add 1930 census says Almyra French head of household, owns her property. Maybe there are land records or maybe she left a will...

Hope this helps a little... Tina

I can find very little as to Benjamin French and his family. I did find an obit for Charley, their 12 year old who got hit by a train at Breeds. Also, Elmira's obit. I find no history what so ever on Benjamin or who his parents are, etc.

Any help will be much appreciated!

Mary Lou French Tannich

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index

- To avoid text wrapping to multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of marriages from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Illinois marriages were not required to be performed in the county of the bride's or groom's residence. If your search does not find a marriage in the county you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Illinois Statewide Marriage Index is an on-going project and does not currently include marriage records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties. Click here for a list of counties and date spans included in the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index.

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

Lloyd "Rody" Rodeheaver
Executive Director

BIOGRAPHICAL.

BEARD, JONATHAN—Farmer and stock-raiser, Sec. 8, P. O. Durham. Was born in Franklin county, Virginia, December 9, 1820, and there lived until twenty-eight years of age, when he moved to Montgomery county, Indiana. Lived there until 1853, then moving to Marion county, Iowa, where he has since lived. He owns 206 acres of land well improved. His wife, who was formerly Miss Mary Ray, was born September 6, 1822, and was a companion of his youth. They were married January 4, 1844, in Franklin county, Virginia, by the Rev. John Bowman. Their family consists of seven children living: Sarah P., Nancy, Benjamin, David C., John B., William J. and Martha E. Mr. B.'s farm is well adapted to the raising of stock, at which he has been quite successful. He also has discovered two fine beds of coal, three and four feet in thickness.

BEAVER, MRS. NAOMI—Farmer, Sec. 7, P. O. Durham. Her maiden name was Naomi Wilson, and she was born in Knox county, Kentucky, September 5, 1811, where she lived four years, then moved with her parents to Madison county, where they lived a short time, and thence to Bath county where they lived until she was ten years of age. They returned to Madison county and there resided five years, and moved to Morgan county, Indiana, where they lived until she was twenty-five years of age. They came to Fulton county, Illinois, and remained there until 1852, when she came with her husband to Marion county, Iowa, and settled on their present place. Mrs. B. now owns ninety-five acres of well improved farming land. She was married to Elias Beaver (who was born October 30, 1799, in Virginia), July 25, 1839. They have had seven children: James A., Samuel L., Nancy J., Sophronia, Franklin C., Sarah E., Joseph W. Jas. A. was born June 1, 1840. He enlisted in company A, Third Iowa infantry, in August, 1862. He received a wound at the battle of Helena and was taken to Memphis, Tennessee, where he died August 17, 1863. Samuel enlisted in company K, Seventh Iowa cavalry, and served three months, and had an honorable discharge at the close of the war. Mary J. died July 31, 1846. Mr. Beaver departed this life August 31, 1865.

CHRISMAN, J. H.—Farmer and stock-raiser, Sec. 31, P. O. Iola. Was born in Clarke county, Indiana, September 1, 1839; moved with his parents to La Porte county, Indiana, when two years of age, where they lived a short time and then moved to Porter county. Here our subject was educated and lived until eighteen years of age. He then went to Missouri and lived there two years, and then came to Marion county, Iowa, and settled on his present place. He enlisted in the late war in company A, Thirty-third Iowa infantry, August 11, 1862, and served three years, and was honorably discharged July 17, 1865. During his service he was under Generals Steele and Grant, and was at the taking of the Spanish Fort, in Arkansas, Fort Blakely, in Mobile and several other minor engagements. Was also at the surrender of General Kirby Smith. At the close of the war he returned to his home in Marion county, Iowa. His wife, formerly Miss Eliza M. Hoggis, was born in Indiana, April 6, 1847. They were married April 2, 1869. Their family consists of four children, all of whom are living:

The Virginia Census Records for 1785, Shenandoah Co.:

Abraham Beaver, 2 persons.
Christian Beaver, 3 persons.
Conrad Beaver, 1 person.
Michael Beaver, 3 persons.
John Beaver, 3 persons.

David Beaver was too young for this census, as he was born in 1769. No further record of the above John Beaver, Sr.

At Woodstock, Shenandoah Co., Va., a marriage record reads: "John Beaver and Catherine Lear, March 21, 1786. Page 19---- ibid."

If this marriage record refers to the above John Beaver, then this was his second wife. The above John Beaver not traced.

III. 2. Abraham Beaver, b. 1758, d. Aug. 2, 1824 (according to stone in Licking cemetery, near Hebron, Licking Co., O.) m. Feb. 25, 1784 (according to Shenandoah Co., Va., marriage record) in Virginia to Barbara Kauffman, b. 1762, d. Aug. 22, 1823 (according to stone in Licking cem.)

Wayland's Shenandoah Valley History gives the following record: "Abraham Beaver m. Feb. 25, 1784, to Barbara Kauffman, the granddaughter of Martin Kauffman, who had pioneered from Lancaster Co., Pa., into Shenandoah Co., Va., about 1729, where he became a large land owner and an outstanding figure in the settlement of the valley. Her father, also Martin, was a Mennonite minister and her mother was Mary Taylor. She was born and raised on the homestead established by her grandfather, Martin Kauffman."

Abraham Beaver moved his family from Page Co., Va., to Licking Co., O., about 1810 and probably most of the children. Barbara Beaver is named in the organization of the "Old Dutch Church," Pleasant Run, O.

Both died at the home of their son, Martin Beaver and wife Elizabeth in Licking Co., O. They went to live with their son Aug. 18, 1823, as recorded in Martin Beaver's Bible. Barbara died four days later and Abraham a year later, Aug. 2, 1824. Issue 11 children. (See gen.)

III. 3. Michael Beaver, Sr., b. Jan., 1760, d. 1821. Named in deeds recorded. In 1785 he is named in Shenandoah Co., Va., Census as married and one child. Michael Beaver, Sr., was m. twice: first, before 1785, to Susan Mauck, b. ----, d. before 1799. Issue 4 children, viz., Michael, Jr., Joseph, Eliza, Susan. He m. 2nd, June 7, 1799 (accord. to Shenandoah Co., marriage record, p. 56, "Michael Beaver and Molly Mauck, June 7, 1799----James Huffman.") to Mary (Molly) Mauck, a twin sister of his first wife. Mary or Molly was b. 1773, d. 1827, aged 54 years. She is buried on the old Beaver homestead by the side of her son, Michael Beaver, Jr., on Pennyroyal Hill. Her stone reads: "Mary Beaver, born 1773, died 1827, aged 54 years." Issue 4 children, viz., Elias, Nancy or Susanna, Levi, Lewis.

Michael Beaver, Sr., moved from Pass Run, Page Co., Va., to Ross Co., O., in 1796, and after two years he went to Kentucky, but returned to Ross Co., O., near Chillicothe, in 1800, where he settled after buying a large farm of eleven hundred acres of land in the Chilton Survey on Deer Creek, Ohio, where he lived and reared his family, died there and buried in the private graveyard on the old homestead. No stone has been found marking his

VII. 2. Talbert Beaver, b. Oct. 6, 1904, d. Jan. 21, 1905.

VII. 3. Margaret Viola Beaver, b. Dec. 12, 1905, near Ulysses, Nebr., d. at Cheyenne Memorial Hospital, Dec. 21, 1937; bur. in Lakeview Cem., Cheyenne, Wyo.; m. April 2, 1937, at Fort Collins, Colo., to Wallace Newton, b. in Texas. They lived on Beaver ranch, 20 miles north of Cheyenne, Wyo. She was the mother of the "Miracle Baby," b. Dec. 21, 1937, at Cheyenne; the little boy who is named Winifred Wallace Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton went to Cheyenne several days before, stopping with friends to await the arrival of the baby. Mrs. Newton became ill, suffered convulsions and was taken to the hospital. When she suffered other convulsions at the hospital she was immediately removed to the operating table. She succumbed a few minutes later. Surgeons worked feverishly to remove the baby from its mother's body. It required less than a minute to perform the post-humous operation and place the child in the respirator after the mother died. The administration of oxygen, possible through the respirator, was the miraculous saving of the child's life. The baby weighed 4½ lbs. The physicians said that under normal conditions the child would have been born within four weeks. The baby gained strength rapidly, took nourishment greedily and responded splendidly to the respirator treatment, which was the only thing that saved its life. In a letter written by Byron R. Beaver, grandfather of the "Miracle Baby," dated Jan. 7, 1938, he says, "the child bids fair to live, and my wife is taking care of it."

On Feb. 12, 1938, the grandfather reported: "The Miracle Baby is doing fine, he weighs 7 lbs., black hair and is one sweet baby." Of the many thousands of births that the compiler has recorded in this Beaver History, this is the first "Miracle Birth" in the entire Beaver family. There have been other similar births in the U. S., but the child lived only a little while. It is the compiler's sincere hope that this child may grow up to be a good and useful citizen.

The child's mother was an exceptional woman, a real Christian, knew her Bible well, gifted and talented in many ways, taught school for ten years before her marriage. She was a musician, played and sang, was a writer of song. She could ride and shoot wild game, a great farm and ranch girl. But note this, when she was born, both hips were dislocated. She was otherwise an unusually healthy child with an exceptionally bright mind at the age of three years. To effect a cure she was in a steel jacket for nearly two years, then she was put in a plaster cast for nearly two years, with just her head, arms and toes out. The cast was changed about every seven weeks. She was very plucky and would always say, "I am going to walk sometime." No grown person could have been braver. After four years of this treatment she was pronounced cured.

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

A Celebration of Life of Dorothy Frances (Beaver) Loynachan, 89, of Knoxville, who died Thursday, Dec. 4, 2003 at West Ridge Nursing & Rehab Center, was held Monday, Dec. 8, at Williams Funeral Home. Interment was at Breckenridge Cemetery, Marion County.

Dorothy was born on April 14, 1914, in rural Marion County, the daughter of Worth H. and Jessie (Gregory) Stroud. She attended grade school at McMillan, a one-room country school, going on to graduate from Knoxville High School in 1931. After graduating from A.I.B. in Des Moines she worked for both the Marion County Treasurers office and the Social Services office in the Marion County Courthouse.

She married Loren M. Beaver on Feb. 9, 1935, and they soon moved to the family farm east of Knoxville. Dorothy worked full time alongside her husband in the farming operation until his death in April 1968. She was then employed as receptionist at Mater Clinic for 17 years until her retirement in 1984. In July 1972 she married Neil D. Loynachan; he died in September 1997.

Dorothy was her family's role model and heroine, always maintaining a cheerful spirit and positive attitude.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husbands, Loren Beaver and Neil Loynachan; three brothers, Merle, Willis and Richard Stroud; a sister, Marion Stroud and stepson, William (Bill) Loynachan.

She is survived by a son, Mel K. Beaver and wife Barb of Melcher-Dallas; a daughter, Sandra S. Agan and husband Fred of rural Harvey; a stepson, Kenneth M. Loynachan and wife Rosie of Knoxville; seven grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; six great-grandchildren and seven step-great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of Central Iowa or West Ridge Activity Center.

Arrangements were made by Williams Funeral Home.

Alvin H. Hulse
1917 - 2005

Alvin Hubert Hulse was born
August 10, 1917 in Sherwood, Oregon.
He passed away at the age of 87
on March 16, 2005

Al grew up on a farm near Sherwood, Oregon. He graduated from West Linn High School and received his college degree from Normal School in Monmouth in 1937. He was a teacher for 40 years teaching grade school, high school and finishing his teaching career at Portland State University. He worked on the railroad as a fireman on a steam engine for the Union Pacific railroad. During the war he built oil tankers in the shipyard at Swan Island.

Al was active in Kiwanian for over 30 years with the Coliseum Kiwanis club. In retirement he enjoyed mowing the lawn and watching his wife Alice working in the yard and garden. They both enjoyed traveling together throughout the country visiting their children, grandchildren and family members.

Al was married to Alice Johnston on April 2, 1938, they enjoyed 67 years of marriage. They were blessed with three children Gary Alvin Hulse, Sandra Alice Eccles, and Alan Ray Hulse, seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Most of all Al was a wonderful husband, Father, Grandpa, and Great grand father, who was special to all of us. May his memory live with us forever.

Miss me . . . . But let me go.

*When I came to the end of the road and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room.
why cry for a soul set free?*

Miss me a little . . . . But not too long and not with your head bowed low

Remember the love that we once shared.

Miss me . . . . But let me go.

*For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the masters plan A step on the road to home.*

When your lonely and sick of heart go to the friends we know. Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds and Miss me . . . . But let me go.

Dear Shirley

Thank you for a lovely day of genealogy! We certainly enjoyed our visit and learning more about the clan! We did stop at the library ~ what a large census section side. We ran out of time, didn't get to across the hall side! Love, Dale & Karen

Hidden log cabin found

by Sharon Nesbit
staff reporter

Ninety years ago a tightfisted pioneer family unwittingly saved a 124-year-old log cabin.

A few weeks ago Springfield resident John Bergan pulled siding from an old farm house and found underneath a perfectly preserved log cabin built in 1853 by the Wilson family, pioneers of the Oregon Trail.

It was no surprise. Bergan, his wife, Pat, and her father, Clem Garrison, had been told many times that the cabin was the core of the house. Until his death last year at the age of 98, the Bergans and Garrison cared for Wiley Wilson, a direct descendant of the original pioneer family.

"Wiley was a very frugal person. I expect all his family was. That's why they built their house around and over the cabin," explained John Bergan who has purchased the farm and plans to live in the farm house. "He used the boards he had on hand. If a 2-by-4 didn't reach he patched the gap with rags, wire, whatever. Even the siding doesn't match when you get to looking at it."

The neat, white farmhouse snuggles on a grassy knoll. Most of that snuggling, Bergan says, is because the house, log cabin and all, is resting on rotting cedar stumps. While quaint from the outside, the sagging floors and tilting walls inside are causing problems for the Bergans who are planning to put a concrete foundation under it.

"It's a real trick with that cabin in there," Bergan commented. There's no question of saving the cabin. It has always been the center of the home, the kitchen. Pat Bergan's kitchen will have 124-year-old log cabin walls.

The Wilsons originally built the cabin on their claim at 302nd and Division streets. Wiley Wilson was born there in 1878. A few years later his father, James Harvey Wilson, dismantled the cabin like a life-size set of Lincoln Logs and hauled it to his hill claim above the Sandy River where he put the pieces back together again.

Bergan suspects that a series of x-marks carved in each log were a code to replace the logs correctly. Some of the original mud chinking is still lodged in the cracks. Hand-hewn beams and round ridgepoles which once supported a loft and back porch are still in place. The gap where the mud and stick fireplace was constructed has been boarded over.

Newspapers used for insulation are dated 1887 and 1878.

Over the years the curved sides of the logs were planed off so a succession of Wilson do-it-yourselfers could cover the log surface with boards and siding.

Gradually all of it was covered with layers of roofing and flooring.

But Wiley Wilson with his remarkable memory still knew the secrets of the house. He told the Bergans his family history. They have adopted it and cherished it as their own.

"Wiley told me there were immense fir trees on this place," Bergan said, "so big they were useless to the settlers. All they could do was drill to the core, pack it with maple wood chips and set fire to them to burn the big trees down from the center out."

Pat Bergan recalled another story Wilson told her: "He said he was five when his mother gave him his first nickel. He wanted to race to the store and spend it but his mother told him, 'Wiley, if you spend that nickel instead of saving it you'll never have it again.'"

His often told me he still had the first house—once the floors are straight.

nickel he ever got."

The Bergans don't have the nickel but many other items treasured by Wiley Wilson will be moved back to the house.

LOG WALLS more than a 100 years old were exposed in the late Wiley Wilson's farm home by John Bergan, who is remodeling the house. The cabin, erected in 1853, was enclosed in the house walls over the years. Bergan plans to save the cabin walls leaving them exposed in a remodeled kitchen.

Verbatim excerpts from the memoirs of J. E. Wilson, uncle of Mabel Haines Oster, Portland, Oregon. Submitted by EDITH BENNETT NOLL.

My FATHER JAMES L. WILSON "Was born in old Kentucky where the meadow grass is blue," and were close neighbors of the Lincoln family. Abe and my father were chums, hunted wild turkeys, bathed in the same old "swim'in hole" and read the Old Bible at night by the light of a pitch-knot fire.

After a few years in Kentucky both families moved to Tennessee about the same time and later to Illinois, Fulton county where I was born Oct. 9, 1852. My father with several of our neighbors caught the Oregon fever upon hearing about the wonderful chances to get 320 acres of good farming land donated to each family who would come and make it their home. So a company was soon raised to make the trip to Oregon.

I think there were thirty persons in our company and instead of ox teams, we decided to get mules. Father bought 4 big strong mules and a good new wagon. We all had mules and could out distance the ox teams. Henry Allen, my mother's father, came with us but was sick a great part of the way. They had some of the boys to drive his team. But he kept a diary. Each night he would write the happenings of the day which is very interesting to read, that is when he was able. My father wrote for him when grandfather was too sick.

One thing that was missed in his story my mother told me about in later years that interested me very much:

We were traveling along one day as usual when someone saw a man on horseback running very fast. Soon as he got near enough to make us hear he shouted "Halt! and form a circle. The Indians are coming!" We did so. That is, they had the women and children inside the circle. My father was the captain of the company. He told the men, "Every man to his gun, but don't show it unless you have to and don't shoot unless the Indians shoot first. I'll go out to meet them alone and without a gun."

Soon they could see the Indians coming. Father took the ramrod out of his old Kentucky rifle, tied a white handkerchief to it, and without gun or sword walked out to meet them.

The chief spoke to father "Klostá Mika?" (Who are you?) Father answered, "Jim Wilson."

"Ica mica ticky." (What do you want?) Father told him in Chinook he wanted to have a friendly talk with him. So they all got off their horses and sat on the ground and father told them we were going to Portland, Oregon and we wanted to teach the Indians about the God who made the Heavens and the earth, and teach the children how to read and write and be good to everybody. Not steal or cheat, but do to others as they would want others to do to them. Then there never would be any war and all would be happy.

They all paid good attention. The Chief took a little feather, put it in father's hat, then told him to go on and he would see that the Indians would not harm them and may God bless them. So we went on rejoicing and had no trouble with Indians the whole way through to Portland.

HENRY ALLYN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

by SEAN ALLYN SMELTZER

v

In 1941 William Byron Miller wrote J. W. Burnett, commander of the American Legion Post at Belleville, Illinois, and asked him to locate the grave of Eleazer Allyn. Mr. Burnett searched for two years before he found the unmarked grave in the Shiloh City Cemetery. On 27 June 1943 the American Legion, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Sons of the American Revolution held an exercise during which a bronze marker was erected over the grave. The program included a dedication, song, buglers, and a firing squad.

Henry Allyn was born 25 July 1794 in Goshen, Orange County, New York, and later moved to Ohio with his family. While a resident of Marietta, Ohio, he enlisted and served from 15 May 1813 for four months as a teamster in Captain David Gilmores' Brigade in General William H. Harrison's army, Ohio Militia.

On 8 September 1825 he married Sarah Quick, the daughter of Isaac and Lucretia Runyan Quick of Silver Creek, St. Clair County, Illinois (see "Genealogy of the Quick Family," by A. C. Quick and "The Pioneer History of Illinois," by John Reynolds for more on the Quick family history and genealogy). Sarah was born 13 August 1796 in Pennsylvania. This period of his life is told in the autobiography. However since he doesn't mention his children in the autobiography, they will be listed below with their spouses and children.

1. Elizabeth, born 21 July 1826 in Tazewell County, Illinois, and died there 5 December 1826.
2. Elizabeth, 2nd., born 24 June 1828 in Tazewell County, Illinois. She married three times, the first to William Fletcher Griffin on 24 October 1847, who died less than a month later on 11 November 1847. She married secondly to James Lynn Wilson, a Methodist minister and a farmer, who was the son of John and Sarah Wilson. James Lynn Wilson was born 10 July 1814 in Kentucky. He had four children by his first wife, Cynthia Murphy, who had deceased. Their children were ----
  - a. John Wesley Wilson, born ca. 1836.
  - b. James Harvey Wilson, born September 1840 in Fulton County, Illinois; married Rachel Ann Beaver; died 29 March 1920 at Troutdale, Multnomah County, Oregon.
  - c. Mary Emeline Wilson, born ca. 1843 in most likely Fulton County, Illinois; married Ephraim Allyn, son of Henry Allyn. More about them is under his name.
  - d. Cynthia Caroline Wilson, born 27 March 1848 in Fulton County, Illinois; married 30 January 1864 in Multnomah County, Oregon to Edgar Richey.

James Lynn Wilson and Elizabeth were married 8 January 1852 in Fulton County, Illinois. They came to Oregon in 1853 with rest of the family, see later in this section after the list of Henry's children. Children born to them were ----

- a. Joseph Ephraim Wilson, born 9 October 1852 in Fulton County, Il. He was married three times, the first to Sarah E. Chitwood on 22 May 1878 in Clackamas County, Oregon; secondly to Jane Bliss; and thirdly to Adelia Ogden Davis. He was the father of four children, they were ----
  - (1) Claude Denver Wilson
  - (2) Elsie May Wilson
  - (3) Ralph Raymond Wilson
  - (4) Beulah Etta Wilson
- b. Benjamin Wilson, died at two weeks of age.
- c. David Benson Wilson, died at five years of age from whooping cough.
- d. Charles Sumner Wilson, born 2 November 1857 in Powell Valley, Multnomah County, Oregon. He married Mary C. Ogden on 5 March 1883 in Troutdale, Multnomah County, Oregon. He died 19 July 1940. They had two children ----

- (1) Archie Wilson
- (2) Otto Feiring, an adopted son

The story of his life is found in the newspaper, Journal, Portland, Oregon, August 16, 1927, page 10, "Impressions and Observations of the Journal Man," by Fred Lockley as told by Charles S. Wilson.

- e. Milton Hines, born 18 January 1859, and died 25 January 1916.
- f. Wilbur Penn, born 12 March 1860.

- g. Lewis Hall Wilson, born 25 June 1863, and died in 1921.

James Lynn Wilson died 7 February 1863 before the birth of their last child. He is buried in the Mountain View Stark Cemetery near Portland, Oregon. Elizabeth then married the third time to William Nelson Carter on 2 January 1864. Elizabeth and William had four children - a boy and three girls (I have been unable to find out their names). The family moved many times in the following order - Wilbur and then to Jacksonville, Oregon; Yreka, Red Bluff, and Sacramento, California; back to Fowell Valley, Oregon; then to Brush Prairie (near Vancouver, Washington); and ending up in Oakland, California where Elizabeth later came down with pneumonia and died ca. 1903. Shortly afterwards William also died.

3. Lucretia, born 1830 in Canton, Fulton County, Illinois, and died there on 25 July 1831.
4. James Henry, born 4 June 1832 in Canton, Fulton County, Illinois. He and his sister, Nancy, and brother, Ephraim, came to Oregon in 1852. He fought in the Oregon Indian War of 1856. He married first to Eliza Maria Talbert, daughter of Frances L. Talbert, in Clackamas County, Oregon on 23 January 1859. Eliza died 3 June 1862 in Oregon from a fall from her horse. She is buried in Marshfield, Clackamas County, Oregon. They only had one child ----

- a. Frederick Stark Allyn, born 30 March 1861 in Multnomah County, Oregon, and drowned in the Columbia River near Cascade Locks on 21 July 1878. He was buried beside his mother in Marshfield. The story is found in "The Daily Oregonian," Portland, Oregon, 24 July 1878.

James becomes a Methodist minister, and while serving in the Clark County Washington area, he met Mary Louise Goddard, whom he married. Mary Louise Goddard was the daughter of Joseph Hill and Hester Ann Goddard. She was born 17 November 1839 in Sangamon County, Illinois. She arrived with her family in 1853 and settled north of Vancouver, Clark County, Washington.

Mary Louisa Goddard was married twice before her marriage to James. The first was to Orville D. Sturgess, who was born 17 July 1830 in Allegany County, New York. They were married 24 May 1855 in Clark County, Washington, and children born to them were ----

- a. Alanzo Lorenzo Sturgess, born 17 September 1856 in Clark County, Washington, and died there 29 May 1863.
- b. Sarah Adelaide Sturgess, born 15 December 1858 in Clark County. She married three times, first to Jesse Phillip Goddard (her cousin); secondly to Joseph Almon Beckett; and thirdly to Howard Joseph Marshall. No children were born to these marriages.
- c. Orville D. Sturgess, born 22 August 1861 in Clark County. He married 16 April 1884 to Amanda Melinda Snover. Orville lived in Goldendale, Klickitat County, Washington, and later moved back to Clark County where he died 28 August 1919. Children born to them were ----

Return after you're thru with it!

Monday noon.

Dear Shirley,

Hope I can sit here and visit a bit before I get a few interruptions - I am supposed to be doing some research for a Real Estate lady on her great grandfather - I'll do that later.

You can print the article if you want to on "Wilson's drove mules to Oregon" I reconstructed it somewhat from the Original and had it printed in our Mt Hood Tracker. Our forum quarterly. A copy is in the Seattle Library and 2 ladies searching a blank corner on Sarah Stoges - John Patrick Wilson's wife. Came down here and found me - lovely ladies - It is an interview with James Harvey Wilson my step father Edgar Wilson's father. She wrote about the lubergusious Old Open I omitted some of her trivia not important to history - So this story is mine and was printed. But add my name at the top if it is printed. If it goes out in a quarterly from there perhaps they should state the article was previously printed in the Mt Hood Tracker in Oregon City, Ore. They have my permission. We had trouble with a gal up in Spokane. Coming down to Oregon City getting our information and printing it before ours came out. One of our members husband was an attorney. He wrote her a letter stating it was the policy that our information in O.C. or Clackamas County was printed by us and she should collect Washington material to print. She had gotten ahold of our wagon train diaries etc. We had no more trouble with her.

Shirley perhaps 20 years ago my friend Lois
Claspill - lived in Portland later moved to Puyallup Wash later deceased sent me the information on the Card on James Grigby wife Charlotte - She said you have Grigby do you want this? She had Fosters - and if out on group sheets I have enough <sup>Fosters</sup> to paper a room. She it was from a Foster Bible - (Can we dispute this) She said the lady that sent it to her stated the death may have been added in later - it was 1821 - 23. Is just the same as on the group sheet. I put it away as I had a very ill husband to take care of. He has been gone 14 yrs was ill many years before with Hodgkins disease would take X-Ray treatments - be fine and go back to work. When you sent the stone for Charlotte Grigby 1855 - It still didn't point in that this could be James Grigby and Charlotte - which was really our Charlotte Wilson's grandparents.

A very odd story on Lois Claspill - She said her folks were in Benton County but she had never been there - I walked for years past a Cemetery on a hill the big stone was Foster as big as a door. I never could go up there because I heard of cows in a big field surrounded the Cemetery fence - at 11 years old I loved our cows but scared spooked of anyone else's cows. I told her about this and on their vacation went up there and found her whole family because a little kid remembered a Foster stone - Now her information from Va comes up with our information - How about paying it back - pasture Cemetery fence

and cows

Another Dear Lady from Our Church - gone now for 15 years - (talk about stories) Uncle Wiley Wilson died 98 years old (Dad Wilsons baby brother) told me his grandpa James Lynn Wilson was a preacher and named all his children for his preacher friends - This lady from our Church was grand daughter ~~she had no son~~ of Circuit minister Wilbur Pearne. Remember first information I sent years ago he was Wilbur Penn. But the last record with full Bible record he was Wilbur Pearne Wilson. She said one day, let bet our Circuit ministers met many times - they sure did.

My Cousin Dorothy Leach gave me an article that stated James Lynn Wilson helped build the Beaver Church and preached there and was buried from there - Beaver Bend is now Sandy.

Another lady (Cousin relation) has a book I have been promised a copy dozens of times - I sent her a copy of the full Bible record thinking she would keep her word. -

It is where James Lynn Wilson answered a call by Dr John M Loughlin to preach at Hudson's Bay Company at (Vancouver, Wash Now) He had to swim the Columbia River to do it. as Shirley they came in 1853 which was 6 years before Oregon became a state. there were no bridges - no ferries or big boats. It was wrote by Joseph Ephraim Wilson (a 6 month baby when they came on the 1853 wagon train.

I saw this book (blank and he wrote it full. It tells where James Lynn stopped the bark from a tree - stripped off his clothes and put it in the (Curl of bark). Swam the river and walked to Hudsons Bay to

"Stingy gut" I feel this way about Rex.

I have been called a liar because no man could swim the Columbia River - But would a minister write it down if it wasn't so. It would have to be in low water.

He said then he swam back and came home. He stayed a week and preached each day. Our pioneers must have been Only John Patrick used to let his red hair bet there was a good cause.

In Book II there is a story about Thomas
Grigsby and brother-in-law Moses Lionberger.
I know a couple of his family here - I will show it to them. Will they ever be pleased.
One is Elaine Lionberger a great genealogist who

FARMER DIES SUDDENLY

Heart Failure Induced by Running to Catch Interurban Car.

Heart failure, due to over-exertion in running for an interurban car, resulted in the death at Gresham Monday of James H. Wilson, aged 79, pioneer farmer of Multnomah county. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the Gresham Methodist Episcopal church. Burial will be in the Douglas cemetery, near Troutdale.

Mr. Wilson and his wife were on their way to take the interurban train to Portland Monday, and ran for a short distance to catch the car, which was then at the station. They had reached the car and had just seated themselves, when Mr. Wilson fell over on the seat with the fatal attack. He was dead within a few minutes.

Mr. Wilson came to Oregon in 1858 and had been farming east of Gresham continuously since his arrival in this state. He is survived by his widow and four children—A. W. M. Wilson of Portland, Mrs. M. Clark of Portland, and Charles and Edgar Wilson of Gresham.

OBITUARY NOTICES.

WILSON :

Rachael A. Wilson, wife of James H. Wilson, was born in Williams county, Ohio, July 12th, 1840, and died of catarrhal dyspepsia, September 18th, 1889.

In 1851, with her parents, she came to Iowa, and in 1855 she was happily converted to Christ and united with the M. E. church, in which she lived a faithful and devoted member until the Saviour called her home.

She was married in 1861 to James A. Beaver, who a few months after fell on the battle field of Helena, Arkansas, where his faithful wife followed and in the hospital at Memphis, nursed him in his dying hour. She was united in marriage to her now bereaved husband February 3, 1868, in Marion county, Iowa, moved with him to Kansas in 1869, and from thence to Oregon in 1875 and settled in Powell's Valley, Oregon, where the bereaved husband, 3 sons and one daughter at Albina now mourn, the loved mother passed away.

Sister Wilson, at Gresham in the fall of 1881, experienced the blessing of perfect love in all its glorious fullness. Three years ago she suffered a severe attack of pneumonia, from which she never fully recovered, and since last April she had been able to sit up only a few minutes at a time. The writer of this, her pastor, frequently visited her bedside and heard her often sweetly witness to the all cleansing power of Jesus' blood and anxiously enquire of her class-mates and the interests of the work on the circuit. In all her sickness sweetly trusting she would say, "The will of the Lord be done," and these were her last words about five minutes before she died.

Her funeral sermon was preached by the writer from Rev. 14:13, at the old Douglas burying place, on the Bluff of the Sandy, where we laid her remains away.

WHITE :

Mrs. Agnes Ann White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham, of

gon. He was fearless and uncompromising in his denunciation of infidelity, the liquor traffic and all forms of sin. He was tender and affectionate in his address and clear in his utterances of gospel truth, upright in his daily life, and a favorite with all who knew him.

After an illness of eighteen days, he sank peacefully to rest at his home in Falls City, Polk county, Oregon, on the 8th of September, 1889.

His funeral was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends. The sermon was preached by the writer from the appropriate text, "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace." His earthly body was laid away to rest in a beautiful hill-top cemetery, surrounded by shady oaks and evergreen firs.

Peculiar

In the combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in its good name at home, which is a "tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, giving strength, and creating an appetite.

The above named minister will be remembered as having returned some two years ago from India, where he had been engaged in the missionary work of the M. E. church. He was in charge, for a time, of Wilbur College at Lewiston, Idaho, and was subsequently pastor at Asotin. He returned, last year, to his old home in Ohio. After remaining a short time at Creston, Ohio, he was sent by the church to Brunswick, Ohio, where he has had charge until now. A recent letter from him states that he will start from the United States about December the first to Poona, India. A school was started in

Wiley Wilson honored by historical society

by Sharon Nesbit
staff reporter

For a pioneer who traveled the Oregon Trail a two-mile trip to get a mid-wife wasn't far.

"But my father didn't make it in time," chuckled Wiley Wilson. "When he got back a redhead kid was there. That's me."

On Jan. 18, Wiley Wilson, son and grandson of Oregon pioneers, will celebrate his 98th birthday.

The Troutdale Historical Society will honor Wilson, the group's oldest member, at a meeting Monday, Jan. 19, 7:30 p.m. in the city hall.

Though his legs are unsteady and his hearing poor, Wilson's memory of names, dates and places puts people half his age to shame.

Added to the recollections of his own lifetime, are the stories he learned in his youth of his own pioneer family.

There are tales of his grandfather, Rev. James Lynn Wilson, captain of an 1853 wagon train to Oregon, who chose mules instead of oxen to pull wagons beating other trains to this country by a full two months.

The elder Wilson, a circuit rider, once kept an appointment at Fort Vancouver by peddling across the Columbia River on a cedar snag when no boat was available.

Wiley's father, James Harvey Wilson, was 12 when the family came across the plains.

"During the Civil War my father was in the First Oregon Company B," declares Wilson. "They were volunteers who went to Fort Klamath to keep an eye on the Indians relieving regular troops for the War with the South. That was shortly before the Modoc Indian War."

Wiley's father struck up a correspondence with a widow in Iowa who had lost a husband and two sons to the Civil War.

"They agreed to marry and my dad traveled from Portland to San Francisco by steamship, then took a steamship to Panama, portaged across the Isthmus and went by boat to New York City. I'm not sure how he got to Iowa," Wilson paused, "but I know it was too far to walk."

The couple settled in Kansas in a sod house until chinch bugs and grasshoppers broke them. For the second time James Wilson came to Oregon, this time traveling by train to San Francisco.

As late as 1875, Wilson found 40 acres of land near his father's claim that had been overlooked by homesteaders.

He moved to the claim just after Wiley's birth. This is the same land where Wiley still lives, tending the fire in his wood stove and waiting for spring when his garden will bloom with brilliant azaleas and fragrant peonies. The peonies were planted in 1904. The azaleas are newcomers. They've only been there since 1943.

"I was 11 years old when my mother died," Wilson recalled. "She was sick for a year and knew she wasn't going to make it so she taught me a little bit of cooking. I was chief cook around here for three years."

"When I was 14 my dad married a woman he'd met at a Methodist camp meeting in Canby. In those days she was what you called an 'old maid.' It was then I got acquainted with her niece, Lulu Massey. They had hops and I went hop WILEY WILSON, holding a treasured wedding picture, will be 98 on Jan. 18. The son and grandson of Oregon Trail pioneers lives on his father's original homestead near Troutdale. Wilson, who worked as a motorman on a streetcar most of his life, is Portland transit's oldest, living employee. He will be honored at a meeting of the Troutdale Historical Society, Monday, Jan. 19, 7:30 p.m. in the city hall.

bushels."

Eventually Lulu taught two terms at Cedar School, the same school Wiley had attended, and the young-red-headed man got a horse and cart to squire his tiny five-foot girlfriend around.

They did not marry until Wiley was 29.

Like his father and grandfather before him Wiley had to try homesteading. In the summer of 1903 he and an older brother staked a claim in Southeastern Oregon near Christmas Valley where his brother heard water could be had by sinking a 12-foot well.

After a trip by wagon Wilson spent the winter sleeping in a tent by night and cutting juniper fence posts by day.

"I hauled lumber 50 miles to build a barn and a home. I came back to Portland figuring I'd return in six months and buy the land at $2.50 an acre. By then my brother was packing up to move. The water left alkali on the land and nothing but salt grass would grow. There was ice there on the 20th of June, slick as a window pane."

Wilson gave up the idea of homesteading. He got a job as a motorman on the Portland street cars, built a five-room house in Portland and married Lulu in 1907.

On his first trip the young motorman had a brake failure on his car, crowded with Saturday night riders. As closely as if it were yesterday Wilson recalls urging the crowded car up the hills of southwest Portland unable to stop for fear of rolling backwards out of control.

He still breathes a sigh of relief when he talks about finding a spot level enough to stop the car. And he is very charitable about his conductor who failed to recognize a signal for brake failure and never applied the rear brake.

Wilson returned to the family homestead. He is Portland's oldest living transit employee and still enjoys donning his motorman's jacket and cap.

Lulu died in 1958 and Wiley has lived alone since, cherishing their wedding picture which has a place of honor in the front parlor of his white, frame home. Most of Wiley's life centers around the kitchen on Wilson Road above the Sandy River canyon. There friends and neighbors drop by frequently to check on him. Neighbor Clem Garrison sees that Wiley has his meals and there's always someone to take him on trips to the doctor or an occasional meeting of the Troutdale Historical Society.

Wiley is a little irked that his legs are unsteady but insists, "I'm not as helpless as you think."

He enjoys sitting with friends, old fishing buddies and others who like to listen to his stories.

"For a man who never circulated much," he mused, "I sure have a lot of picking up their place was yesterday Wilson recalls

new friends."

Miller came across the plains to Oregon in 1853. Mrs. Miller came two years later, but it was not until '65, when she left her home at Cape Horn, to attend the Bishop Scott that the two met. Their marriage took place three years later. Miller lived first on the old Hen-Luelling "orchard," bought by her. That place since has been sold into lots and sold as one of the additions.

Miller is still actively connected with the Bank of Gresham. He is president of his son, Karl Miller, cashier manager. In addition he is associated with an insurance company. Mr. Miller or any member of his family has had a day's sickness.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF EDGAR RICHEY, PIONEER

Thinking perhaps it might be of interest to the many readers of our worthy home paper, we desire, through the courtesy of our editor, to publish a more complete biography of the late Edgar Richey, who had been a resident of Sellwood for many years before his death at his home, 612 Tenino Avenue, Nov. 20, 1918.

He was born in Iowa Nov. 6, 1840, and in 1852, when he was 12 years old, his father, two uncles and a neighbor, with their families, formed a company who started westward for Oregon, traveling across the plains with ox-teams, bringing a few household effects with them.

Their journey was a very slow and perilous one, as they encountered many dangers and difficulties along the way.

Sometimes they found no grass for their cattle, or the roads were almost impassable. Then again, when they must make camp for the night no wood or water could be found. Fortunately they had no bad encounters with wild animals, and although they met with many Indians along their journey, they seemed to be of a friendly nature and made no trouble.

Some days they could travel as far as 20 or 25 miles, but oftener could only cover from 3 to 10 miles owing to conditions. Many times they would have to go miles out of their way to find food or water.

However, the greatest and most fatal calamity they had to deal with was sickness, especially cholera, which was so prevalent among the travelers. Many times the entire company would lay over for days on this account and before they completed this journey, eleven of their company had died. On June 16, 1852 Edgar Richey's mother died; that day they were camping on Platte River. They made a coffin for her from a part of a wagon bed, and they fixed bent wagon tires down around the grave to mark the spot, and to keep wolves from digging there. His young sister, a child of six years, also died on their journey.

After an eventful six months of travel they reached Oregon and spent the winter of 1852-53 in Portland. The next spring the family settled near Sycamore, and in 1857, Stuart Richey (Edgar's father) built a house which is still standing and, having been modernized, is now occupied by members of the family.

When the Indian War broke out in 1856-57, Edgar Richey enlisted and was in service several months.

✕ In 1864 he married Caroline Wilson, also a pioneer, and to them were born seven children, six of whom are living: Mrs. Mamie Osborn of Mosier, Charlie Richey and Mrs. Ella Lake of Boring, James, Bert and Ellis of Portland. He also leaves a brother, John Richey of Boring, a half-brother, Frank Richey, one sister, Mrs. Jame Jewell, and two half-sisters, Mrs. Grant Sager and Mrs. Chas. Kesterson.

He lived over 40 years on his farm at Boring, coming to Sellwood in 1906, and with the help of his son Bert built their comfortable home.

Although of a quiet, retiring nature he made a host of friends. He was an honest man, strictly conscientious in his morals, untiring in his efforts to better humanity, and as his long and useful life drew to a close his loved ones knew that all was well between "him and God." His wife, four sons, and two daughters-in-law were present in the hour of his death, each realizing with a keen sorrow that not only were they losing a companion and father, but a friend, always interested in their comfort and welfare. He will be greatly missed in Sellwood. We laid him to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Mt. Scott Park.

IMPRESSIONS AND OBSERVATIONS OF THE JOURNAL MAN FRED LOCKLEY

"My father, Edgar Richey, learned his trade as a wagonmaker in his shop on the Base Line Road, near Wiberg Lane, near 47th Street" said Albert H. Richey, realtor of Milwaukie. "Charley M. Wiberg and A. M. Hollabaugh used to be in the boot and shoe business in Portland, on Front Street between Alder and Morrison. Wiberg lived on the western slope of Mt. Tabor.

"My father was born in Iowa and crossed the plains with his people in 1852, when he was 12 years old. My grandfather, Stuart Richey, was born in Kentucky in 1812. He took a donation land claim where Sycamore was later located.

"The Sycamore schoolhouse, which was on my grandfather's place, still stands. When the folks crossed the plains there were five children - my father and his father and three sisters. Father's mother died of cholera, on the Platte not far from Chimney Rock. His youngest sister, three years, died a little later.

"Grandfather started with four wagons. When Grandmother died he put the goods from wagon in the other three, burned the wagon, and used the irons to put over the grave so the coyotes and wolves would not disturb the body. When the three year old girl died they were in Oregon, and Grandfather took the lightest wagon, burned it, and guarded her grave with the iron work. The old Oregon Trail passes over her grave.

"Grandfather, with his brother, Caleb, and the Ingrams and Akins, left the regular wagon train and struck out. When they got to The Dalles the season was so late that they left their stock with a settler at Hood River, built a raft and went down the River with the wagons and the goods. They left the raft at the Cascades and took the steamer Lot Whitcomb for Portland. They wintered at Portland. Flour was $32 a barrel and pork was $60 a barrel. The only work he had was cutting cord wood at 6 bits a cord and splitting rails at $1 a hundred.

"Father went to school at Sycamore. In 1855 he worked at Milwaukie for Seth Luelling who had a nursery. In the back yard there are two huge cherry trees and Father helped with the grafting in 1855.

"Father enlisted in the Indian War in 1855-56 but he did no fighting. He was stationed at The Dalles until the fighting was over.

"My mother who was Cynthia Caroline Wilson, was born in Illinois and crossed the plains in 1853. Her father was James Wilson, settled in Powell Valley. He was a Methodist minister. He helped build the log schoolhouse at Cedar, preached the first sermon in it. It was about three miles south of Troutdale. Mother went to school there and so did I. Mother was born in 1848 and was 17 years when she married my father, in 1865. They were married at the house of her Uncle John Wilson, in Powell Valley. There were seven children in our family - three girls and four boys.

"My brother Charley died a year ago, Annie died when a little girl. Mary Arvilla, usually called Mamie, married Joe Osborne of Damascus. She is a widow and lives at Mosier. Ellen married Carl Lake. They live in Boring, James lives in Sellwood; I am the next child; Ellis lives at Sellwood.

"When I was young I worked with a thresher for 13 seasons, my first around Damascus and later in Sherman County. When east of the mountains I rode range for J. N. Roark. His home ranch was at Pilot Rock. Charley Roark was proud of his mustache as Charley Cunningham, the sheep king, was of his beard. Roark, when he ate, would twine his mustache over his ears. Cunningham was prouder of his long, silky, dark beard than of his best Rambouillet buck. I put in five years around Pilot Rock and Grass Valley. I knew Bob Alba, for whom the town of Alba, in Southern Umatilla, was named.

"After coming back from Eastern Oregon, I worked with Crane & Co. for many years, in the shipping department, and later was trouble shooter.

"After 12 years with Crane & Co. I went to Eugene and worked for the Clerk's office four years. I was married in Nov. 1918, to Minnie M. Ingram. George C. Brownell of Oregon City was the witness at our wedding.

"In 1879 we drove to a barn raising near Boring. Mother said, 'What is that big animal by the side of the road?' Father said, 'That's a cougar.' He stopped the team and went back to Charley Roark's house, Charley came with his dogs and gun, and the dogs treed the cougar. It measured 9 feet from tip to tip and its skin made a fine rug."

-- Albert Richey

The following is from records of Oregon Historical Society:

Edgar Richey served with me in Capt. Buckley's Company 9th. Regt. Ore. Militia in the Ore. Ter. Indian Wars of 1855-56.

He enlisted for 30 days, served 63 days; honorably discharged at the Cascades.

He served in Yakima War - enlisted April 1856 - served 63 days.

RICHEY FAMILY OF PLEASANT VALLEY

The Richey and Akin families were among many of the immigrants coming west from Iowa in 1852. Stuart Richey, two boys, John 3 and Edgar 10, their daughters Jane, 5, and Annie 8 yrs. were in the party. Mrs. Richey passed away on the trip and was buried by the roadside, as were many others on the wagon train. There were 30 wagons drawn by oxen. Also a few milk cows were brought to supply milk for their needs.

There were many hardships encountered, such as dust storms and lightning storms that killed part of the cattle. The members of the train had to build temporary bridges that took days of hard labor. Only ox could cross at a time and the wagons had to be pulled across by hand. Fishing and hunting was good. The Deschutes River was the largest one where the train camped.

One time the Indians bothered by dusk, and also arrow heads were flying too close for comfort. The cattle were in the corral and feeding at night. The guard went out with his big rifle, where he noticed a large clump of bushes on the prairie he fired 1, 2, 3 and 4 single shots, then there were no more arrow heads. The next morning when the men went out to investigate all that was found was puddles of blood. The wounded were taken away at night.

The party arrived at The Dalles in the last days of September. They were advised to leave cattle and wagons and continue by barge. They sailed in wagon beds, each family was on his own. Some of them stopped at Vancouver, Wash. and others came on to Portland. Many of them stopped at Troutdale and set up camp at Kelly Butte, on a level piece of ground with no timber, which made it easy to start farming.

Boon Johnson, who had come ahead of the train told them the land was poor and to come on to Pleasant Valley where the land was good and there was a log school house. So they did go to Pleasant Valley and there is the "Old Richey land claim" on Foster Road. Just over the line in Multnomah County, with the help of the neighbors a two story log fort was built to watch for Indians.

They were told the Indians would steal their possessions after dark. Enough holes were cut through the walls to stick five rifles through, on each side of the upper story. The lower floor housed the cattle. The fort was 40 by 100 feet.

Later enough land was cleared to grow some crops. Grubbing the stumps was their winters work. Stuart was the neighborhood blacksmith. Wagons, plows and other equipment he built to sell. He also shod horses.

Frank became the neighborhood dentist. He had a pair of forceps and a bottle of pain dispenser and pulled the aching teeth to give relief to the patient. Other relatives who came were Clinton and Arken Kelly. The Clinton-Kelly school still has the same name. The old log building has been replaced with a modern garage.

Portland in 1850 was a sawmill town. The logging was done with bulls on skid roads. I have pictures of all these. The old-time city industry such as Olds and Kings, Meier and Frank, The Owl Drug Store. The Oregonian, J. K. Gill Boot Store and one grocery was the size of the town. It was then a very rough country. The east side was farm land to the river. The sandy loam was the best soil for gardens. Later the farms moved back to 12th and in 1890 moved back as far as 82nd - now 122nd, soon Gresham with higher taxes and fewer farmers. More people and more accidents; 500 every 3 day holiday. Why not go back to the horse and buggy? Then there was a good record and good market for our grain. We fed the pigeons, grewed the finest rhubarb. We got there and back all in one piece. Now look with all the aches and pains. Planes are no better. The wild animals are well fed now from the jungle to the city, the sharks to the mountain lion.

Oregon City is the oldest town and it was the capital and a sawmill town. The residential district was on the hill. I was told the loggers slid down greased poles to work. There is a short cut now, the elevator. Some of the old landmarks stand, which is more than 100 years old.

The Oregon City Enterprise is the oldest paper, and the doctor was Dr. Raferty. One of the greatest things that changed Multnomah and Clackamas Counties was the railroad in 1904 to Boring and then on to Estacada in 1905. Before that there was no Boring. It was all timber. Estacada was farmland, but wet and low, with no drainage. Now after 55 years work the only change in Eagle Creek is a good road. They still have the same buildings, except Wilbern's store with the Post Office and bar in the rear.

After the farm at Pleasant Valley was cleared enough to make a living, they took up more land.

Up here two miles south of Oregon City road, it was already settled up some, about 10 families; a log school house, a cemetery with 28 graves (some more than 100 years old now) there. In the 1840's there was an organization formed. In 1905 they elected officers, came up and fenced it and seeded it to grass. Now there is timber there big enough to mill.

The school was last used in 1886 then moved to a more central location on the Oregon City road and was named Boring District No. 44 in 1904; was there until recently when it was moved to the present site in the town of Boring with nine teachers.

My father started some clearing on his 80 acres in 1870 and built a cabin and a barn. By 1880 he had a bigger house, a yoke of cattle for clearing, a light team of horses to drive to Portland and was married.

He served as school clerk for several years. There was just enough attendance at school to have a clerk and a teacher. The teacher's salary was $40 a month. My teachers were Mary Young of Damascus, Ellen Byers of Carver, Maggie Guthridge of Springwater, Marian Ferrley of Troutdale and John Duffy of Oregon City. We walked 2 miles to school, some two and a half. Each carried an umbrella, just in case it rained. When it rained it really rained and when it snowed, it snowed.

We had deer, bear, cougar, and skunks to look out for. Stock ran out all winter. Our play at school was tomball, hide and seek and knock the stick off. There lots of trees and logs to hide behind.

The railroad in 1904 opened a market for timber, mostly for wood. In 1905 the railroad was built to Estacada. Hundreds of acres good timber blew down. On the low lands the roots spread out flat and the winds often whipped them down. These were cut up and shipped to Portland by rail for wood.

I remember back in 1885, there was a bad wind storm. At that time a man by the name of Peterson from Sandy went to Oregon City after some medicine for his little girl who was ill. He went on foot. On his return the wind down timber in all directions and he had to crawl under and over logs all day. It took him three days to make the round trip and when he reached home he found his daughter had died. She was buried in the small cemetery south of Kelso, Oregon and a picket fence was built around her grave. Others were buried there later. In the later years the Pioneer Association moved the graves all to the Sandy Cemetery. In a storm like that a saddle horse was a poor way to travel over the trees.

In 1890's the log school at Kelso still stood and was used for a school literary debating in the winter time every two weeks. It was well attended by people from Sandy, Marmott, Sandy Ridge, and other surrounding districts. Very few who took part are living today. But one man, Ed Brians who was active and he is in a rest home at Gresham.

By attending reunions I have heard the story of the "On to Oregon" first hand by many people who made the trip and told it as only they could. Some drove horses and some drove mules which was faster than with oxen.

Oregon City is the oldest town and is the capital and a small town. The cathedral district was on the hill. I was told the loggers all down Oregon work. There is a short but new, the elevator. Some of the old landmarks stand, which is more than 100 years old.

The Oregon City Newspaper is the oldest paper, and the doctor was Dr. Halsey. One of the greatest things that happened in Oregon City was the railroad in 1850 to Portland and then on to Astoria in 1855. Before that there was no logging. It was all timber. Business was booming, but we had no law, with no discipline. Now after 25 years work the only change in Eagle Creek is a good road. They will have the same buildings, except Wilson's store with the Post Office and but in the town.

After the fire at Pleasant Valley was cleared enough to make a living, they took up more land.

miles; a log school house, a cemetery with 50 graves (some more than 100 years old now) there. In the 1850's there was an organization formed. In 1905 they elected officers, came up and lunched it and needed it to grow. Now there is timber there big enough to fill

The school was first used in 1855 then moved to a more central location on the Oregon City road and was named Oregon District No. 10 in 1905; was there until recently when it was moved to the present site in the town of Gering with nine teachers.

My father started some clearing on his 80 acres in 1870 and built a cabin and a house.
By 1880 he had a bigger house, a good chimney for clearing, a light team of horses to drive to Portland and was married.

He served as school clerk for several years. There was just enough attendance at school to have a clerk and a teacher. The teacher's salary was $20 a month. The teachers were Mary Young of Vancouver, Ellen Evans of Corvallis, Maggie Hamilton of Springfield, Marian Lemley of Portland and John Gully of Oregon City. We walked 2 miles to school, some two and a half. Each carried an umbrella, but in case it rained, when it rained it really rained and when it snowed, it snowed.

We had deer, bear, cougar, and rabbits to look out for. Back ran out all winter. One day at school was Campbell, Mike and Jack and took the night out. There lots of snow on logs to ride behind.

The railroad in 1901 opened a market for timber, mostly for wood. In 1905 the railroad was built to Astoria. Hundreds of men good timber plant down. On the low lands the roads turned out flat and the winds often whipped them down. There were not up and ships he reached home he found his daughter had died. She was buried in the small cemetery near of Kelso, Oregon and a plucked fence was built around her grave. Others were buried there later. In the later years the Elmore Association moved the graves all to the Sandy Cemtery. In a stone like that a candle house was a poor way to travel over the town.

In 1900's the log school at Kelso still stood and was used for a school library opening in the winter time every two weeks. It was well attended by people from Sandy, today. But one man, Ed Elmore who was active and he is in a rest home at Clatskanie.

First we used teams of horses for the seven mile trip to Portland, then trolley, then by car in 1917. We went by trolley to the parks at Cedarville or to Oak Grove.

Eagle Creek or Jack Knife, it was called was very bottom land. After a rain it looked like a big lake. The little creek, Goose Creek headed on the Horger place and it hardly knew which way to run. After the road was graded and deep ditches made it was decided. About 1890 Albert Cook would be road boss. The road from Clackamas to Goose Creek crossing was made with teams and slip scrapers. The work was done free except for the boss who got $1.50 a day for a 10 hour day. There was no road down by the river past Burkharts grist mill until long after the railroad came. Then the people used the railroad with its passenger trains every two hours daily. The railroads was expense paying and they kept up their own road.

We were told Eagle Creek or Jack Knife School No. was 17, started before Oregon became a Territory with 17 scholars. The teachers pay was $30 a month. They had a log fort to guard against the Indians. A grist mill to make the flour. Of the 17 scholars one was a Richey. I attended a 4th of July celebration in the grove where the present school is. The sign over the entrance said 1776. That sure is a long time ago. They had horse races in the afternoon, gals rode side saddle and won the race. Fire crackers and plenty of noise all day. It was in 1917 that I bought a new Ford in Estacada for $415. Yes'm them were the days!

NATIVE DAUGHTER DIES AT AGE 98 (copied from Oregon Journal, January 27, 1954.)

Salem, Jan. 27.

Mrs. Annie J. Tuttle, who lived in Oregon all of her 98 years, died here Tuesday.

Salem had been her home for eighteen years. Before coming here to live with a daughter, she lived many years at Union and La Grande, moving to the latter city after the death of her husband, John E. Tuttle, in 1903.

She was born February 22, 1855, near Gresham, to Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Richey, pioneers in the area. Survivors are two sons, Floyd of Portland and Walter of San Francisco, and two daughters, Mrs. Lee Warick of Salem and Mrs. W. G. Hull of Los Angeles.

NOTE: On November 3, 1858, Stuart Richey married a widow, Mrs. Sarah Carter. Mrs. Carter already had several children, one of whom was Annie Tuttle.

First we used teams of horses for the seven mile trip to Portland, then trodies.
Then by car in 1917. We went by trodies to the parks at Catalina or to Oak Grove.

Jack's house on Jack Knolls, 10 was called was very pretty house. After a rain it looked like a big lake. The little creek, Goose Creek passed on the right side and it usually runs with very little water. After the road was graded and deep ditches made it was drained. About 1900 almost back would be road work. The road from Clatskanie to Goose Creek was made with teams and with trodies. The work was done from about 1900 the road was built 21-22 a day for 10 hours a day. There was no road down by the river pass Portland Creek with small logs after the railroad came. Then the people used the railroad with the passenger trains every two hours daily. The railroad was expensive getting and they kept up their own road.

We were told Jack's house on Jack Knolls School No. 17, started with Oregon became a territory with 17 soldiers. The soldiers were 10 a month. They had a log house on ground against the hillside. A girl will be made the first. At the 17 soldiers was a kitchen. I attended a lot of help celebration in the grove where the present school is. The sign over the entrance said 1760. That was in a long time ago. Then had some trees in the afternoon, Gale rode the saddle and won the race. The winner and plenty of notes all day. It was in 1881 that I bought a new horse in Portland for $110. Yes, that was the date.

NATIVE BIRTHDAY LINE AT AGE 95 (page 2 from Oregon Journal, January 27, 1927.)

John, Jan. 27.

John, Jan. 27, 1927, who lived in Oregon all of her 95 years, died here Tuesday.

John had been here for almost 95 years. Before coming here he lived with a daughter, who lived many years at Union and in Oregon, serving to the latter city after the death of her husband, John E. Tuttle, in 1910.

She was born February 22, 1832, near Brewster, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Finney, prominent in the area. Survivors are two sons, Elmer of Portland and Walter of San Francisco, and two daughters, Mrs. Lee Martin of Salem and Mrs. W. O. Hall of Los Angeles.

MR. Finney, on November 3, 1858, Edward Finney married a widow, Mrs. Sarah Carter.
Mrs. Carter already had several children, one of whom was Annie Tuttle.

And here are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson rounding out their days pleasantly in their comfortable home with its weedless vegetable garden. It is Mrs. Wilson's delight to pick a pan of crisp string beans for Mrs. Preston or another old friend. And Mrs. Wilson enjoys a call from "Dan" Dunbar, and remarks on the great improvement in farm machinery and road-making, and the lasting quality of pioneer friendships.

Wallowa Union County, Oregon, August the 22 - 78

Dear Nephews, This leaves us in great sorrow. Brother Benjamin left home nine days since and went to pick Rawsberries 3 miles from home on or near the Wallowa River on the same side of the river of his house. He picked berries till noon and at that time his son in law and another young man got with him. He then give his berries to Joshua Coffman, his son in law. Joshua was a horse back and he was afoot. He said he would go up the small slew to a logue and cross and meet Joshua a half mile from there on the prairie. Joshua came to the place agreed on and wated a while and come on home through the prairie for it was all prairie from there. Benjamine did not come. Then Joshua went back to hunt him and could not find him. Then six of us hunted him all nite nearly and we have bin hunting him ever since and cannot find any signs of him ever since. We have 25 men hunting several days. He had only a vest, pants and shirt on and no money. We have searched the Brush and River and Prairie. We cannot find any Indian sign in here and we know not of any Indians being in here since the war commensed. He was cheerful in the morning when he left. He had not had any trouble with his family or anybody else and we know he has not gone out of his own account or we would have heard of him. We believe the Indians has taken him off from here and killed him or he is still with them. It all a dark mistery to us. The balance of us is all well but myself. I have a vary bad cough and my arm is not well and still out of place some. James Shirts and family is at Grand Round at Powels. I intend going home this fall if it is possible for me to raise the means to go and will try to come past and see you once again. I think in Sept. or Oct. next. I believe all want to get back to Powels Valley but John L. Henry. He appeared to like the place. I close with a sad hart and sorrowful mind.

Joseph S. Wilson to James H. Wilson & John W. Wilson and Joseph E. Wilson and families

May the great God of the univorce bless and comfort all your harts and may we meet in Glory.

Dear Nephews, I found the boddy of Brother Benjamine on the 24. He had been cruelly murdered. He was shot in the back, the ball passing through his boddy and coming out below the brest bone, his head cut off and he was hid in the thick brush a bunch of willows and burch surrounding him on every side but a small gap and the murderer had broken off brush and filled up that gap. We smelled him and found him in a decayed state. He was laying on his back and we thought he had been moved twice a short distance from he was first fell. He had not moved after he was layed where we found him. There was no skin or flesh on his skull. His skull was by his wright arm and his under jaw lying among his hair. The jury thinks it was done by a white man. He had no enmy in the world that we knew of. But the jury will report and it will be published in the Oregonian and you can know more than I can write now. His knife and tobacco was in his pocket, he had no money. I cannot express my opinion now. It is all a most profound mistery and the greatest wonder to all; there has been no hostile Indians in here that anyone has seen and the body being hid and moved it does not look like the work of Indians and him being at peace with all men. Every thing is a mistery yet unveiled yet I earnestly pray the murderer may be found out and brought to justice. I have so many letters to write this morning I must close.

Impressions and Observations of The Journal Man

By Fred Lockley 7-9-37

"My father, Edgar Richey, learned his trade as a wagon-maker in his shop on the Base Line road, near Wiberg lane, near 47th street," said Albert H. Richey, rector of Milwaukie. "Charley M. Wiberg and A. M. Hollabaugh used to be in the boot and shoe business in Portland on Front street between Alder and Morrison. Wiberg lived on the western slope of Mount Tabor.

"My father was born in Iowa and crossed the plains with his people in 1852, when he was 12 years old. My grandfather, Stuart Richey, was born in Kentucky in 1812. He took a donation claim where Sycamore was later located. The Sycamore schoolhouse, which was on my grandfather's place, still stands. When the folks crossed the plains there were five children—my father and his brother and three sisters. Father's mother died, of cholera, on the Platte not far from Chimney Rock. His youngest sister, 3 years old, died a little later.

"Grandfather started with four wagons. When Grandmother died he put the goods from one wagon into the other three, burned this wagon, and used the irons to put over her grave so the coyotes and wolves would not disturb her body. When the 3-year-old girl died they were in Oregon, and Grandfather took the lightest wagon, burned it, and guarded her grave with ironwork. The Old Oregon Trail passes over her grave.

"Grandfather, with his brother, Caleb, and the Ingrams and Akins, left the regular wagon train and struck out. When they got to The Dalles the season was so late that they left their stock with a settler near Hood River, built a raft and went down the river with their wagons and goods. They left their raft at the Cascades and took the steamer Lot Whitcomb for Portland. They wintered at Portland. Flour was $32 a barrel and pork was $60 a barrel. The only work to be had was cutting cordwood at 6-bits a cord or splitting rails at $1 a hundred.

"Father went to school at Sycamore. In 1855 he worked at Milwaukie for Seth Luelling, who had a nursery. In the back yard, here, are two huge cherry trees. Father helped in their grafting, in 1855.

"Father enlisted in the Indian war in 1855-56 but did no fighting. He was stationed at The Dalles until the war was over.

"My mother, whose maiden name was Caroline C. Wilson, was born in Illinois and crossed the plains in 1853. Her father, James Wilson, settled in Powell valley. He was a Methodist minister. He helped build the log schoolhouse at Cedar, preached the first sermon in it, and when he died his funeral service was held in it. It is about three miles south of Troutdale. Mother went to school there, and so did L. Mother was born in 1848 and was 17 when she married my father, in 1865. They were married at the home of her uncle, John Wilson, in Powell valley.

"There were seven children in our family—three girls and four boys. My brother Charley died a year ago. Annie died when a little girl. Mary Avilla, usually called Mammie, married Joe Osborne of Damascus. She is a widow and lives at Mosier. Then married Carl Lake. They live at Boring. James lives at Sellwood. I was the next child. Ellis lives at Sellwood.

"When I was young I worked with a thresher 13 seasons, at first around Damascus and later in Sherman county. When east of the mountains I rode the range for J. N. Roark. His home ranch was at Pilot Rock. Charley Roark was as proud of his mustache as Charley Cunningham, the sheep king, was of his beard. Roark, when he ate, would twine his mustache over his ears. Cunningham was prouder of his long, silky, dark beard than of his best Rambouillet buck. I put in five years around Pilot Rock and Grass Valley, I knew Bob Alba, for whom the town of Alba, in Southern Umatilla county, was named.

"After coming back from Eastern Oregon I worked for Crane & Co. for many years, in the shipping department, and later as a trouble-shooter. After 12 years with Crane & Co. I went to Eugene and worked in the county clerk's office four years. I was married in November, 1918, to Minnie M. Ingram. George C. Brownell of Oregon City was the witness at our wedding.

"In 1879 we drove to a barn-raising near Boring. Mother said, 'What is that big animal by the side of the road?' Father said, 'That's a cougar.' He stopped the team and went back to Charley Roark's house. Charley came, with his dogs and gun, and the dogs treed the cougar. It measured 9 feet from tip to tip and its skin made a fine rug."

Charles L Wilson

I was born in Powell valley, just East of Portland - Nov 2 - 1857. My father was James L Wilson, was born in Kentucky and was a Methodist Minister - My Mother whose Maiden Name was Elizabeth Allyn, was born in Illinois - My Mother's father was Henry Allyn, was Methodist Exhorter. They Crossed the plains in 1853. My father's first wife was Cynthia Murphey - they had 4 Children. My Mother's first husband was William Griffin - He died within two weeks of their marriage - I was too hard to remember dates but you can easily figure up when my father and Mother was married, for my brother was born Oct 9 - 1852 - 9 months to the day they were married.

Father and Mother had 7 Children - Father died when I was 5 years old - His 7th son was born after Father's death - There is an old saying that the 7th son that had never seen his father should be a doctor. So my youngest brother Lewis Hall Wilson became a doctor and practiced his profession until his death in Salem, Ore. He died Spring of 1921.

has been in charge of the decoration department since. John Mark was made business manager and Mrs. Maude Herbert was in charge of the gift department. All will be at the shop's new

POLICEMEN ACTIVE

Traffic Arrests Bring Fines $52,040 Into Coopers.

PORTLAND, Or., March 18.—(Special.)—Police participated in 6826 traffic arrests during the period January 1 to December 31, 1932, with fines amounting to $52,040.40, according to a report released here today by J. T. Pray, superintendent of the police department. Approximately $5600 of these fines were paid.

In many cases the arrests resulted from reckless driving, while in 322 cases the cars were found to be equipped with improper license plates. Drivers placed under arrest numbered 261.

TWO MEN ARGUMENT

Kills Himself After Quarrel With Wife.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 18.—After a quarrel, authorities said, after an argument with his wife, Marjorie, M. Cramer, 31, a logger, shot himself at their home last night.

Cramer has a brother, Ray, in Portland, and a sister, Mrs. Benson, in Astoria, Or.

Home From Mexico.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 18.—J. Reuben Clark Jr., until recently United States ambassador to Mexico and previously under-secretary of the State Department, recalls how they crossed the river on pontoons under Confederate fire, men being shot and falling into the water on all sides of them.

NEWPORT COUPLE MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

NEWPORT, Or., March 18.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wilson of this city last Sunday entertained a number of friends and relatives at their home in celebration of the 50th anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were married at the home of her parents near Troutdale, Or., on March 5, 1883. Mr. Wilson was born in Powell Valley in 1857 of pioneer stock, his father being one of Oregon's earliest Methodist ministers. Mrs. Wilson was the daughter of Charles and Emily Ogden, who came to Oregon from Indiana in 1878 and located on a farm east of the Sandy river.

IMPRESSIONS AND OBSERVATIONS OF THE JOURNAL MAN

By Fred Lockley

8-18-27

The industrial revolution was a democracy. It was an industry, but purely a democracy. If there had been a democracy the people would have been asked as to the war. Instead of this, they were either driven into a struggle that was as necessary as a fifth wheel on a carriage. Why? Not because of any military machine of the allies or the other powers, but because of an acute stage of industrial war. The industrial democracy, fighting for markets, finally dragged the military and people into a war of violence, so that they could have markets. Now notice the insanity of society that is based, not upon the love of neighbor, but the love of the neighbor's hard-earned productive energy.

Before the war Germany was putting fully half of all her productive energy into the military. This meant that half the energy of the industrial aggression, as well as half her manpower, was being absorbed at home in the maintenance of the military. Yet, notwithstanding this, she was slowly but surely acquiring the markets of the world away from her competitors. The war ended this supremacy, and was the real punishment meted out to her for being the aggressor in the war.

But the allies, in their insanity, thinking to render her helpless, decreed that she should abandon her military and have done with the fool's job of trying to terrorize her neighbors. Fine, but it left the German people free for the first time to devote their entire energy to commercial production and man-power to commercial strength. Who won the war? Up by beneficial results, there is only one answer to this question. Germany won the war, because, for the first time in her history, her people were taken out from under the lead of militarism and aristocracy and left free to devote themselves to commercial production. The supremacy that she lost because of the war she either has regained or is in a fair way to regain, or is far and away ahead of anything she ever had before.

But what has happened to all the rest of us? Did we free ourselves as we did Germany? We didn't. We proceeded to load up ourselves with all kinds of military expenses. We increased our man-power in the useless pursuits of so-called defense, when the only defense that we had the most remote need of was a defense against that very thing, waste in military and kindred affairs, so that our people would be free to compete with the Germans. We loaded all the burdens of reconstructing society onto the farmer of the land. We piled upon his back loads of men and machines by indirect taxes until he is being slowly crushed to death.

Insanity, insanity! Swedenborg knew what he was talking about. Or shall we agree with another when he said, "Every evil situation has within itself the seeds of its own destruction." We thought we were punishing the Germans, when we were only punishing ourselves when we destroyed his armies and war machines. If we do not do the same thing with our own, and so make ourselves able to compete commercially, in the end Germany will dominate the world. F. E. Coulter.

"I am the watchdog for General Ulysses Grant McAlexander, Rock of the Marine," said Charles S. Wilson, when I visited him recently at Newport. "I am watchman and custodian here. General McAlexander built me a little house next to his new home so I could take care of the place. Yes, I am 70, though people tell me I don't look it, and I certainly don't feel it, for I can stand on my head or turn a handspiral about as good as I ever could. I was born in Powell valley, just east of Portland, November 2, 1857. My father, James L. Wilson, was born in Kentucky and was a Methodist minister. My mother, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Allyn, was born in Illinois. My mother's father, Henry Allyn, was a Methodist exhorter. They crossed the plains in 1853, settling in Powell valley. My father was a widower and my mother a widow when they were married. My father's first wife was Cynthia Murphy. They had four children. My mother's first husband was William Griffin. He died within two weeks of their marriage. I am no hand for remembering dates, but you can easily figure up when my father and mother were married, for my brother Joe was born on October 9, 1852, nine months to a day after their marriage. Father and mother had seven children. Father died when I was 5 years old. His seventh son was born after father's death. There is an old saying that a seventh son or a son who has never seen his father should be a doctor, so my youngest brother, Lewis H. Wilson, became a doctor and practiced his profession in Salem many years. He died in the spring of 1921. After father's death, mother married William N. Carter, an old bachelor in Powell valley. Mr. Carter and my mother had four children—a boy and three girls—so, with the children of my father's first wife, my mother's children, the children of my father and mother and the children of my mother and my stepfather, Mr. Carter, mother had her hands full.

"After mother married Mr. Carter we went to Wilbur, where I attended Umpqua academy. Dr. Carter, whose home is here in Newport and who is the agency physician at the Siletz reservation, and who, by the by, is no relation to my stepfather, attended Umpqua academy. He was about 18 or 19 and I about 8 when we were fellow students there. My stepfather ran a blacksmith shop at Wilbur. From Wilbur we moved to Jacksonville, where my stepfather and mother ran a restaurant. From Jacksonville we went to Yreka, Cal., where my stepfather worked in a blacksmith shop a while. Later we went to Red Bluffs, thence to Sacramento, and from there to a crossroads blacksmith shop seven miles from Fairfield. My stepfather was a rolling stone. The farther a place was away, the better it looked to him.

"I will never forget my boyhood days in Pope valley. We were there three years. The hills were full of deer and the streams of trout. From Pope valley my folks drifted back to Powell valley, later going to Brush prairie, near Vancouver, where my stepfather ran a blacksmith shop. From Brush prairie they went to Oakland, Cal., where my mother took pneumonia and died and shortly after my mother's death my stepfather dropped dead on the street. When I was 20 I went to work for Dr. M. G. Kellogg and his associates and helped build the sanitarium at St. Helena.

"When I was 21 I came to Portland and got a job working in Cantrell's sash and door factory on North 9th street. On March 5, 1883, I married Mary C. Ogden at Troutdale. We went at once to Ilwaco, where I worked in the salmon fleet, getting 4 1/2 cents a pound for salmon. I was in or around Ilwaco nearly 15 years. I came to Lincoln county in 1889 and took up a homestead near Chitwood. After I had proved up I sold it and went to California. I got lots of experience, but mighty little cash down there, so I came back to Lincoln county, flat broke, and started farming again near Chitwood. In 1906 we went to Cottage Grove so the boys could go to school. After six years in the schools there they wanted higher education, so we went to Eugene, and they to the university.

"After a few years my wife and I moved to Grants Pass. My wife became engaged in Bible work in the Seventh Day Adventist church. She took orders for a book issued by the church organization entitled, 'Practical Guide to Health.' At first I helped her by delivering the books and making the collections. Later, in 1912, I also took up the work and became a colporteur. I traveled on foot all over Curry county, taking orders and delivering Bibles and the 'Practical Guide to Health.'

"We came to Newport in November, 1924. My half-sister, Caroline Richey, at 612 Tenino street, can give you a good story, as she crossed the plains in '53. Our son Archie lives at Roosevelt Beach. Our adopted son, Otto Feiring, who is of Norwegian ancestry, is a lumberman at Grants Pass."

Willard B. Price and his son Jack run a store at King's Valley, in Benton county, near the Polk county line. I dropped in to visit them recently. "I was born here in King's Valley, October 10, 1879," said Mr. Price. "My father, Lane Price, was born in Yamhill county in 1850 and was raised in the Waldo Hills. He came to King's Valley in 1871. My mother, whose maiden name was Serpenta Norton, was born in King's Valley in 1850. Six of the nine children of us are still living. My brother John lives at Wren. My sister Edna, who married L. W. Oren, lives in Portland, as does my sister Ethel. My sister Minnie is a member of the faculty of Columbus university at Columbus, O., and Jim lives at Hoskins. My mother's people, the Nortons, crossed the plains in '48 and settled in this fork in the hills in 1848. My mother's brother, Lucius Norton, lives in Portland. He is crowding 70. Wiley Norton, another brother, lives at Lewisville and is upwards of 75.

"On December 29, 1890, I married Nettie Maxfield. Our son, Jack, who is 26, is with me here in the store, and our daughter, Leone, is married and lives on our old place. You should see 'Tip Maxfield' here. He came to Oregon in 1854. Charley Rice is no spring chicken. He was born here. My mother, Ashna Plunkett-Price, is 79. She lives up the road a piece. She was born here 79 years ago."

DIED.

WILSON—Died—At the residence of his brother, Mr. J. P. Wilson, East Portland, Oregon, on May 7, 1881, Rev. Joseph S. Wilson, in the sixty-fifth year of his age.

Some short time before his death he had a fall from the effects of which he seemed to suffer much, and this added to his disease of the lungs, brought the end on the above date. As he was passing away, Rev. C. Alderson, who stood by his bedside, asked if he was trusting in Jesus. "Oh yes—I feel like I was on the mountain top and feel like preaching, and shouting the praise of God," he answered.

Brother Wilson was born in the state of Kentucky December 2, 1816. He was "born again" in Fulton county, Illinois, in 1836, and then joined the M. E. Church. His first act was to erect the family altar in his father's house. His father was converted, and died in triumph at the advanced age of eighty-six years, the first fruits of a faithful son's labors. He was married to Julia Rogers March 28, 1840, who with a son and daughter, both married, survive him. Shortly after his marriage he was licensed to preach, and supplied a circuit in Northern Illinois. On July 20, 1851, he was ordained deacon by Bishop Waugh at Peoria, Illinois. Was ordained elder by Bishop Scott at Chicago, September 18, 1853. In 1855 he sought and obtained a certificate of location from Bishop James. From 1855 to 1868 Brother Wilson's health was very precarious, disqualifying him on many occasions for the itineracy. During intervals in these years he engaged in business. He removed to Kansas before its admission to statehood, and December 16, 1851 he was commissioned by Governor Robinson Chaplain of the 7th Kansas Volunteers. This position, from failing health, he was compelled to resign. On November 6, 1866, he was elected Representative from Bourbon county, Kansas.

In 1875 he landed in Oregon, and spent some time with his friends in various parts of the state. In the fall of 1879 he supplied the Clear Creek Circuit, with the people of which circuit his labors will be long be remembered. To them he was acceptable, and his labors were owned of God. About this time he was again compelled to seek rest, but he was ever moving about, acting as Sunday school superintendent, attending protracted meetings and other services until the Lord said, "Come up higher."

We laid the weary body away, near to the homes of many who cherished him, in Powell's Valley, the writer hereof officiating at the funeral services. I loved Father Wilson for his noble soul, so disinterested and true. He was a brave soldier of the cross, and as such finished his course, and laid his armor down.

PIONEER HISTORY: ROBERTSON, Dicky Diary Interview

This is the interview given by David Columbus ROBERTSON's son
Allen E. ROBERTSON, 1898 Clay Co. Kty. ....

My fathers name was David ROBERTSON; he died in Clay County KY 18 Or 20 of June 1872 or 73 age 103 and from Feb to June. HIS father was Samuel ROBERTSON. He was born in the Highlands of Scotland. His wife, Elizabeth HARRIS and his brother William came over with him. I do not know when they came nor whether either was married when they came, though I think, they were. My grandfather left Moraviantown and settled two miles southeast of Richmond, KY where the water works now are, in 1777. I have heard my father say it was two years after BOONE went into the Fort at Boonesborough. Col. ESTILL settled near him about the same time, I think the same year. My grandfather lived and died near there, a mile near Richmond, adjoining Judge GOODOE's then called the John RIGG Farm. My father David Columbus Robertson was the eldest. He was born at or near the mouth of Dan River, VA, at a little town called Moraviantown. He had a brother, John, who went to Jackson County, Missouri. William, James and Alex settled in Indiana. James in Shelby County. The others in Morgan County at Martinsville. Sally married a GORDON and went to Mississippi. Esther married George BAKER and went with others to Indiana. Mary married a METCALF and went to Indiana. Jessamine went to Indiana unmarried. Martha married William MOBLEY and died in Madison County, KY. My father married Alie ALLEN. Daughter In 1839 he moved from Otter Creek to Clay County and located on Goose Creek opposite the mouth of Beech Creek. He said he came to this part of the State to hunt, in an early day, when little Goose Creek was the line between the whites and the Indians before a treaty was made between them. He hunted with John BAKER Sr., father of "Julius" Bob and "Durkham" John, George BAKER who married Esther ROBERTSON, my aunt, and was a Methodist preacher; and James called "Claybank" #2283

a great fighter, "ClayBank" was the father of Billy BAKER Sr. was called "RENTA" and has a brother, Bowling BAKER and a brother George BAKER. George was the father of John BAKER called "Cana" the rhymmer, who made rhymes on Col Felix GILBERT and "Dry" John BAKER when John ran for the Senate and was elected and when FELIX ran for Representative and was defeated by Elhanon MURPHY. BOWLING Jr. son of BOWLING Sr. was bound to Daugh WHITE to learn salt making and killed Morgan DEZAM with a single barrel pistol with two balls in it. He fled the country and never returned. Georges descendant disappeared. The BAKERS came from North Carolina to Madison County and lived in Forts there. Another of the hunters of the Blue Grass was William MORRIS called 'Cuddy' who settled in the forks of Goose Creek and Red Bird. These Renta BAKER and his Three sons, George, John and "Julius" Bob. MORRIS, Jack HARRIS, #2284

Elisha HARRISON with my father David ROBERTSON made the 8 hunters who visited these regions. Beng LANGFORD and a man named LYONS first made salt for commerce. I have seen 40 boat loads of salt, 2,500 bushels tied up at my father's place at the mouth of Beech Creek from 1837 to 1844. There were 18 furnaces in blast above Manchester, besides Francis CLARK's two furnaces, one coal and the other wood. Francis CLARK got his 1000 acres at the mouth of Bull Skin by a "Head Right" from VA. I think it was patented in his father's name. Salt was worth 75 cents. The Goose Creek furnaces made about 90 bushels a day and the Bull Skin about 60 bushels and they would average 200 days a year. My mother was an ALLEN. She was a daughter of Adoniram ALLEN. He was nicknamed "Tediucoooooooooooo" because he was so particular. The two creeks called "Teges" were named for him; he was born in New Hampshire near #2285

the Vermont line. He was a Captain in Col. CLEVELAND's regiment at the battle of King's Mtn where three Colonels commanded alternately. He settled in Augusta, GA. He was a mechanic. He was first a ship builder. At Augusta he put up iron works for some parties there. He also did some work of that kind in Sparta GA. He emigrated to KY but stopped in NC fut stayed there only a year to put up a mill, perhaps. (James and The. GARRARD, James and Daugh WHITE) were commissioners who expended $20,000 in South Fork and Goose Creek and Red Bird. This was about 1856-7. Eighteen years ago Judge HYDEN got an appropriation of, $6, 000 which General GARRARD and myself expended in the narrows or from the mouth of Crain Creek to Turkey Gap, a distance of five miles by land. Most of it was put in Chute. The "Basin" is 27 feet deep. We put blasts in the bottom of the narrows. There have been perhaps 100 salt boats sunk in the "Basin" but no one was ever lost there till 1871. #2286

Several have been drowned since. Pilots used to charge $5.00 for taking boats through the narrows. There were 300 guards at the jail at one time when Dr BAKER was in prison here. I was a guard from June to October. I was one of the eight inside guards. I was always present when any of Dr BAKER's friends came in to see him. I was a late comer into the county and all parties had confidence in me. While the 300 county guards were on duty; the State sent 300 guards; so that there were 600 at one time. Judge ROBERTSON and Judge KAINKADE, both of Lexington were retained for the defense. Joseph MOORE of Mt Vernon was Commonwealth's Attorney, Dr. CALDWELL's father assisted in the prosecution. Dr BAKER was a monomaniac on the subject of his wife. He would talk with perfect coherency in any other subject, but the moment his wife was mentioned he was wild, looked wild, talked incoherent, Daniel BATES made a will after Dr BAKER shot him, willing $10, 000 for the prosecution of Dr BAKER. He died inside of 24 hours after he was shot. He was sitting in his chair, asleep, at the salt furnace, when BAKER shot him. Milt RICE, afterwards Congressman from the 9th Dist, located at Barbourville, I think it was, to practice law. His brother located at Irvine and married a Miss SMITH. They were Irishmen who located first in NY then came to KY. Rice had not gotten any practice when a suit came up. Commonwealth against "Boston" Bob BAKER... a misdemeanor. He had no counsel and the Judge appointed Rice to defend him. Silas WOODSON, afterwards Gov of MO and John M. ELLIOTT, afterwards Judge of the Court of Appeals were prosecuting. They made BAKER out terribly guilty. Hi CORNETT was also before the Court for the same offense; the difficulty had been between them. In the latter case they changed sides. Now CORNETT was an angel. RICE said that in NY they did not practice law by telling anecdotes but as it was so common in KY he would indulge. He said he was reminded of WOODSON's position in this case of a church trial. END

#2287

Samuels death is recorded in the Lexington Reporter 8/28 as:
Samuel Robertson of Madison Co, Kty died in August 1826.

on the subject of his wife. He would talk with perfect composure in any other subject, but the moment his wife was mentioned he was wild, looked wild, talked incoherently. Daniel MATES made a will 11/18/81

After Dr. HARKIN when him willing $10,000 for the prosecution of Dr. HARKIN. He died inside of 24 hours after he was shot. He was sitting in his chair, asleep, at the table, when HARKIN shot him. Miss RICK, afterwards Congressman from the 5th dist. located at Bardonia, NY. I think it was in practice law. His brother located at Ives and married a Miss SMITH. They were 17 years old located later in NY then came to NY. Nick had not worked any practice when a suit came up. Commonwealth against "HARKIN" HON. HARKIN... a businessman. He had no business and the judge appointed Nick to defend him. Miss WOODSON, afterwards Gov of NY and John W. ELIOT, afterwards Judge of the Court of Appeals were prosecuted. They said HARKIN not terribly guilty. H. CONNERT was also before the Court for the same offense the difficulty had been between them. In the latter case they changed sides. Now CONNERT was an angel. RICE said that in NY they did not practice law by telling anecdotes but as it was so common in NY he would laugh. He said he was reminded of WOODSON's position in this case of a cheap trial. END

FRANCIS M. MOGNETT
History of Arizona, 1896

Francis M. Mognett was born in Caldwell County, Missouri, near an old Mormon settlement, April 27, 1842, to the marriage of George Mognett and Frances (Farley) Mognett, both native Virginians. In 1852 the family started across the plains, but the mother died of cholera while on the way. The rest of the family reached Portland, Oregon and settled on a farm in the Willamette Valley. There the father died when eighty-one years old. In 1876 our subject left Oregon and made his way to Arizona, taking with him about 400 head of cattle. He located at Dripping Springs, Yavapai County, on a large ranch and entered actively on his career as a stockman. He still owns this ranch.

In 1881 he came to Phoenix and the same year purchased sixty two acres of land within the corporation. This has since been subdivided. Mr. Mognett built the Lamson Business College and is a man who allows no worthy movement to fail for want of support on his part. He still handles beef cattle, buying and fattening for the market. He also has half interest in 240 acres at Grand Canal, one half interest in eighty acres of land below Tempe and property in Phoenix.

On the 18th of September 1870 Mr. Mognett married Miss Sarah E. Wilson, a native of Oregon whose father was a resident of Portland, that State. Ten children have been born to this union and are named as follows: Minnie A., now Mrs. Charles Stevens of Phoenix; Sarah F., now Mrs. W.A. Milton of Briggs, Ariz.; George W.; Ida M., Rosa L.; Elmer F.; Martin J.; Anna E, Jessie I. and Francis M. Jr.

- Sept. 1853 - started by mule team & wagon for Oregon.

- got 320 acres - donation land claim near what is now Division St (section line Rd) and Strebin Rd., east of Thesham. see (James Lynn) - had super orchard!

later sold this property and moved to Linn Co., Or.
when warned by "Indian John" of an Indian uprising. Actually, east county residences moved to Portland area; then apparently Portland people moved farther south into the Willamette Valley, until problems were eased. Linn Co.

later moved back to S.E. 11th & Stephens, Portland, Or.

EAST SIDE AFFAIRS

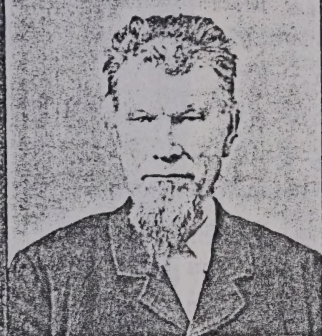

Death of a Pioneer Woman---At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, a pioneer woman of '52, died very suddenly at her residence at 401 East Eleventh, Stephen's addition. Mrs Wilson had been in poor health for about a year, but until six weeks ago was not regarded as being seriously ill. Dr. T. C. Humphrey was then called, and pronounced her suffering from heart disease, that must prove fatal within a few months at least. He undertook to treat her for this disease. Other physicians were called in consultation. Dr. Harry Lane was summoned yesterday and was present with Dr. Humphrey at 1 O'clock. After consultation the physicians prepared to leave, not thinking Mrs. Wilson was in immediate danger. The patient was sitting up in bed, surrounded by the family, when she suddenly fell back on the pillows. The doctors hurried to her side, but she was dead. Her death was perfectly painless, and she passed away without a struggle. Mrs. Wilson was 75 years old and highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. She leaves a husband and a large family of children. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have resided in Portland a great many years, coming to Oregon in 1852.

Dear Cousins

I thought I would have written to you along time ago but I have got so many ragged children to sew & patch for it keeps me firelly buissy so I beg pardon my health is very poor my lungs are weak. The children are all well but Alfred & I don't think he is much sick we have had a verry cold winter for this part of Oregon I would like to know what kind of weather you have had up there where is Cousin Grace & Charles. we heard that Joseph was killed with the Indians 3 years ago I do hope it is a mistake have you heard annything about Mary Ann we have not herd from her for over two years I think it is to bad for her to not write to father & mother after they have been so good to help her & James & the children I suppose you have surely herd of Georges death he died the 3rd of May pleases father mother still works about as much as she did when you was here Emmet & Emerson Tkelly are both married & Austan Jones is married & also the powells girls are married but one & she is rather young the old man (Z) Yarnold is dead & the old lady Mitchel is dead I don't think their was even anny body else died that you was acquainted with I have not seen anny of Mary's folk since last fall Edgar come and worked several days on my house & would not have pay for his work all the neighbors have been real good to help me they done my plowing last spring for nothing cut my hay & have got the most of my wood my boys are large enough to get wood but both of them have been sick Fran frank had Typoid & pneumonia fever together he was not able to do anny chores for a month Alfred was not sick so long as frank was he just had a severe lung cold I had a real sick spell last fall it was my fourth spell of with consumption so you must know I am verry sad & lonely I feel as if life was almost a burden to me but I must try to live for my children we have got a home it is one 40 of Dave Morgans land it lays right on the bank of Sandy it has a tolerable good house on it & about 10 acres in cultivation Dice is married again to a by the name of Smith she lives at Dayton I thinks he is a good man he has got 7 children home & the others are working out so dice has 6 children to work for Sarah is still in Arrizona she has 6 children 4 girls & two boys Ruth is still living on their place near white school house she has 4 children 2 girls & 2 boys is not verry good to her Lida is single yet has bought her a nice Organ & paid for herself it cost 110 dollars she is to play verry fast poor Jane still has asthma real badly spells she has a baby a little over twenty months old smart & sweet they named him John he has been walking a long time his lung fever I don't think this climate good for week lungs there's so much father is talking of buying the old I will be glad if he does he don't on his farm in linn county because far from anny of his children father are just as good to me as they can father keeps me in flour mother & lida both help me lida has learned the d. s. makor trade she is resting a while now on account of her health she earned one dollar per day nearly a year mother bought a dress pattern for me & lida cut & made it & sent to me before I knew annything of it & it me exactly she only has to have the meas of the waist I expect you will think I have written a good deal of foolishness I will my boys pictures Alfred is sitting & fre standing I remain your affectionate cousin Naomi E. for the past 20 years, but as he did not move fast enough the wagon was pitched over. Mr. Bussey landed at the bottom of the hill on top of the horse. Then came the kegs of roof paint deluging the driver and horse with the tenacious stuff. It was a fearful mess of roof paint, man and horse and wagon, and it was some time before the mix-up could be disentangled. It was found that no bones were broken, only there was total loss of paint. It took Mr. Bussey half a day to get rid of the paint. The horse that was formerly a bay, now wears a brindle red spotted coat which he cannot shed.

OBJECT TO CITY BARN.—Residents of Brooklyn object to the use of the city tract on Powell and Milwaukie streets as the site for a barn for the Street-Cleaning Department. A meeting of the Seventh Ward Improvement League will be held next Thursday night in the hall on Powell and Milwaukie streets, when the matter will be considered. It is expected that vigorous remonstrance will be filed against the location of the barn on this tract, on the ground that the barn will be objectionable and also that the tract is wanted for a park. It is urged that the old Park Commissioners had agreed to fix up the tract for a park. The hall association, formed of members of the Brooklyn Republican and Improvement Club, held a meeting Thursday night and decided not to erect a hall if a barn is to be erected on this vacant tract. The association purchased a lot near the tract.

WAS A PIONEER.—John P. Wilson, who died at his home, 715 Tenino avenue, July 12, and was buried in the Gresham Cemetery, was a pioneer of 1853. He was born in Kentucky on April 21, 1822, and with his wife crossed the plains to Oregon, in 1853, and settled near Gresham. He helped erect the first schoolhouse in Powell Valley in 1854, called the Cedar schoolhouse, and served as director for many years. For 62 years he had been a member of the Methodist Church. He had in all 125 descendants of whom five daughters, 40 grandchildren, 44 great-grandchildren and eight great-great-grandchildren, survive him. The surviving children are: Mrs. Mary Ann Shurtz, of Knob, Cal.; Mrs. Naomi Mognett, of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mrs. Sarah Mognett, of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mrs. Ruth Roberts, of Gresham, Or.; Mrs. Lydia Palmquist, of Gresham, Or.

SELLWOOD POSTAL STATION TO OPEN.—The new Sellwood postal station will open this morning in the Sellwood bank building, on East Thirteenth street and Umattila avenue, in charge of Superintendent O. H. Walburg. First delivery will be tomorrow with three carriers. The room has been comfortably and conveniently fitted up. The postal station formerly maintained in Sellwood was transferred to Brooklyn three years ago, but the change did not result satisfactorily to the people. Postmaster Young readily agreed that the station should be restored, and it is believed that the mails will be collected and delivered to the people of that suburb more promptly heretofore and additional carriers will probably be needed before long.

SWEDENBORGIAN LECTURE.—Rev. Frank Howard, D. D., of Washington, D. C., pastor of the National Church of the New Jerusalem, of West Point, Ill., to Portland three days ago and a guest of an old Iowa friend, Mrs. Clark, who has lived in Portland 18 years. In order that Miss Harvey have the opportunity of comparing Iowa hills with those of Oregon, Clark proposes to organize a party of friends for the ascent of Mount Helens, and will leave this city next 16.

OFF FOR OLD NEW YORK.—W. Fraley, millinery buyer for Fraley, left last Thursday for New York via Y. & R. Exposition and the Canadian Pacific. Miss Conkleman, head trimmer of the same firm, returns from New York next week. Very soon there'll be something interesting in Fall millinery Third and Salmon.

Dear Hazel,

Enclosed are the two old letters. When John Wilson wrote to his nephew John Jewell, the Jewells would have been living at Cove, Oregon — a few miles from La Grande. Marie and I found the place. The buildings were gone, but there were some very old trees — perhaps those locust and walnut seeds which had become trees.

With love,
Zola

my dear & very dear friends
 so true & good my dear friends

My dear I don't think this climate is good for your lungs. There is so much bad wind & father is talking of leaving. The old place back
 I will be glad if he does. I don't like to live in his farm in farm country because it is so far from any of his children & father & mother & we just agreed to me so they can live father helps me in your mother & father both helps me. Father has learned the dress makes trade. He is nothing a while now on account of his health. He learned one dollar yesterday for nearly a year mother bought a dress between for me & father & made it in secret.
 He one before I knew anything of it & it got me exactly. He only made have the measure of it. I wish you wouldn't have written a good deal of for business. I will send you my best wishes. Alfred is getting a French education. I remain your affectionate son Nemo E. Reynolds. Please write soon for us.

Dear Cousin

I thought I would have written to you long time ago but I have so many ragged children to sew & patch for I keep me pretty busy. I beg pardon my position is very poor my lungs are weak. The children are all well but Alfred & I don't think he is much sick. We have had a very cold winter for this part of Oregon I would like to know what kind of weather you have had up there where is Cousin Grace & Charles we heard that Joseph was killed with the Indians some ago. I do hope it is a mistake have you heard anything about Mary Ann we have not heard from her for over two years. I think it is to bad father do not write to father & mother after they have been ragged to help her & James with children. I suppose you have many kind of things with the 3rd of May with consumption & goes on until now - I am very sad & lonely I feel as if life was almost a burden to me but I must try to live for my children we have got a home it is one of those Oregon land it lays right on the bank of Sandy it has a delicately good house on it & about 10 acres of it in cultivation Alice is married again to a man by the name of Smith who lives at Dayton father think he is a good man, he has got 9 children sat home & the others are working out & does has 6 children he went for David is still in Oregon & he has 6 children 4 girls & two boys Ruth is still living on their place near where school house she has 4 children 2 girls & 2 boys John is not very good to her Lida is single & she has bought her a nice Organ & paid for it all herself it cost 110 dollars she is learning to play very fast - her Grand still has the asthma real badly & she'll she has got a big baby a little over 12 months old he is real smart & sweet they named him John William he has been talking a long time & his name

please father mother still get 180 about as much as she ~~and~~ did when you was here Tommet & Emerson they are both married & Susan Jones is married & all the Howell's girls ~~are~~ are married but one & she is rather young the old man Howell is dead
& the old lady. Matheol is dead, I don't think there was any more body. I like that you was acquainted with I have not seen any of Mary's folk since last fall Edgar came and visited & several days on my house & would not have left for his work all the neighbors have been real good to help me they done my plowing last spring for nothing but my hay & have got the most of my seed my boys are largo enough to get wood but both of them have been sick ~~then~~ Frank had Typhoid & pneumonia fever together he was not able to do any work for a month & all was not well as long as Frank was he had had a severe lung cold I had a real sick spell last fall it was my ~~first~~ fourth spell

White Birch (WB)

White Birch is located south of the intersection of West Powell (US 26) and Walter Road in Gresham, Oregon. It adjoins the south property line of West Gresham Grade School on the west side of Walters Road.

The site consists of 41 lots plotted in 4 rows of 10 lots in each row with an extra lot designated as 31A located immediately west of lot # 31 in the southwest corner of the arrangement. Lots 1, 2, 6, 18, 20, 25, 35, and 40 are reported to be vacant.

Each lot has from four to ten grave sites. Lot Numbers are shown as: Lot number-position within the lot, ie: 7-2W indicates lot number 7, second grave west. Numbering within the lot site is from the north to the south position.

Lots may be divided into two halves in which graves are numbered and designated as located within the West or East half of the lot.

W = West half of the lot. E = East half of the lot.
Some sites are identified as unknown with a west or east location and are shown as: 22-E (Unk).

A newspaper clipping in the possession of the Gresham Historical Society believed to be from a 1949 paper states the White Birch Cemetery association is seeking to contact relatives or friends of some deceased persons whose names appear on grave markers for which the site location is unknown. These names have been included in the listing if they did not appear on the information sheets received from METRO. Site location for these names is unknown and an * will appear in the site location.

White Birch Cemetery was once owned by Frank Escobar
It is on the Rev. Alfred Cornutt DLC, OC #1681

Dear Kathleen,

We are so glad you found our cemetery. Your letter was forwarded to us from the Parks Department and we are happy to tell you that your grandfather Albert Homer is buried in the City section of the Pioneer and Military Memorial Park.

We are sending you the information on his death record and a picture of the marker on his grave.

We try to collect information on the 3000 plus burials in these cemeteries and hope you will help us by telling us what you know about the following:

Did your grandfather have any military service?

What was his occupation?

Other places where he lived and when did he come to Arizona?

Did any other members of the family come to Arizona?

There is some information about these cemeteries enclosed.
Hope this is of some help to you.

Sincerely yours,

Marge West

PIONEERS' CEMETERY ASSOCIATION, INC.

The Pioneers' Cemetery Association (PCA), Inc. was re-established in 1983 as a non-profit corporation committed to preserving the cemeteries where Arizona's pioneers are buried. Their mission is to raise public awareness of this part of Arizona's history through youth programs, special events, and public contact. In addition, the Association has worked tirelessly to research the burials at the Pioneer & Military Memorial Park. The Association has an ongoing historic interest in pioneer cemetery sites within the Phoenix Metro area and statewide.

The City of Phoenix Parks, Recreation and Library Department owns, maintains, and operates the Pioneer & Military Memorial Park. Since its transfer to this department in the 1970's, the Parks, Recreation and Library Department has constructed the Avenue of Flags, Jacob Waltz Monument, and has completed the perimeter fencing. Most recently, in 1999, the Parks, Recreation and Library Department joined forces with other city departments to renovate the historic Smurthwaite House that is now the headquarters for the Pioneers' Cemetery Association, Inc. The house will be used by PCA as an archival library for information regarding historic cemeteries throughout Arizona.

PIONEER & MILITARY MEMORIAL PARK

The Pioneer & Military Memorial Park formerly known as the Pioneer Cemetery is made up of seven historic cemeteries dating back to the 1880's. Four of the cemeteries, the City-Looseley, Masons, International Order of Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias, and Ancient Order of United Workman were developed in the 1880's and are located south of Madison Street. The Rosedale and Porter sections, north of Madison, were established in the 1890's. All cemeteries were privately owned until the 1950's when the City of Phoenix took over ownership. The Streets Department monitored the cemeteries until the 1970's when Parks, Recreation and Library Department was assigned to maintain them.

Burials at the cemetery ceased in 1914 due to the residential infill surrounding the Capitol building, which was completed in 1901. As early as the 1890's, articles in the local publication lamented the deplorable maintenance of the cemeteries. Many pioneer families relocated their loved ones to Greenwood Cemetery when it opened in 1906.

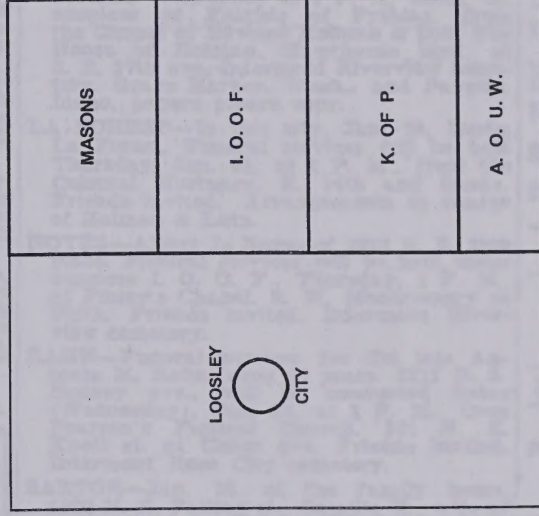

During the 1930's, improvements were made at the cemetery by a group of Phoenix townspeople who formed the original Pioneers' Cemetery Association, Inc. This group included such leading citizens as Thomas Hayden and Barry Goldwater. Their efforts were soon curtailed due to World War II.

Built in 1897, the historic Smurthwaite House is an excellent example of Shingle Style architecture. This is one of the few remaining 19th Century buildings left in Phoenix. The Smurthwaite family requested that this charming house be preserved and enjoyed by the public. It was donated by the family to the Phoenix Art Museum, the Museum of Northern Arizona, and the Heard Museum. The three museums then donated the house to the City of Phoenix. The home made a landmark journey down 26 City blocks to the the Pioneer & Military Memorial Park. It has been restored and will serve as an archival library for information regarding historic cemeteries throughout Arizona and also as the headquarters for the Pioneers' Cemetery Association, Inc.

it was only by the utmost vigilance that they were preserved. The stealing and hardships of travel reduced their stock to such an extent that when they reached Benicia, California, their outfit was reduced to two wagons, with but two yokes of oxen, and cows attached to each wagon, and a few head of loose cattle. Passing the winter in Benicia, which was composed of the families of Dr. Simple, Major Gosper, Hunsaker and Tustin, in the spring of 1849 they crossed the straits to Contra Costa county, California, and occupied the old ferry house, and began cutting redwood and splitting out lumber, with which they built the first house in Martinez, they being the first white family in the settlement. Mr. Hunsaker helped organize the county, and was the first County Treasurer under the Territorial government. In 1850 he purchased 1,000 acres of land near Oakland, which he occupied, engaged in farming and stock-raising, bringing this farm to a fine state of cultivation. Under the unjust law defending floating claims, his property was claimed and he was compelled to abandon the product of his eighteen years' labor. He then removed to Tulare county in 1868, and settled upon 160 acres near Woodland, where he still resides, aged eighty-nine, with his faithful wife, the partner of his joys and sorrows, aged eighty-five years. To this union were added four children, three of whom survive: Nicholas, engaged in farming and stock-raising in Arizona; Joseph, living with his father; and H. K., the subject of this sketch. James C. was lost in the fatal wreck of the Brother Jonathan, in 1864.

H. K. Hunsaker was born in Missouri, in 1838. He accompanied his father and family across the plains, and remained with them on the ranch, engaged in farm work, embracing such primitive educational advantages as were offered him. In 1855 he engaged in mining upon the Merced river, with no great gains. In 1858 he was sent to the McMinnville College, Yam Hill county, Oregon, which was then conducted by President Chandler, where were educated some of the most prominent men of the State. In 1861 he returned to California and engaged in school-teaching in Contra Costa county. In 1869 he was appointed Under Sheriff by Warren Brown, and by his successor, M. B. Ivory, remaining in that position until the spring of 1873, when he came to Oregon and located upon French prairie, where he farmed for three years, and afterward followed the sheep business in eastern Oregon until 1879, when he located in Portland and engaged in the real-estate business until 1890, when he joined the partnership of Cardwell & Lippincott, in the custom-house, brokerage and general real-estate business, in which he is still engaged.

Mr. Hunsaker was married in Marion county, in 1860, to Miss Susanana Jones, daughter of S. W. R. Jones, a pioneer of 1853. Mr. and Mrs. Hunsaker have had four children, namely: Silas E.; Ethel L., wife of F. L. Leatherland, of Portland; Arthur E. and Zoie. The family have a beautiful home at Fulton Park. Mr. Hunsaker represented the county of Marion in the State Legislature in 1876, to which position he was elected by the Republican party, to which party he is a consistent adherent.

REV. H. H. CROSIER, an Oregon pioneer, and one of the highly respected citizens of Portland, was born in Somerset, Vermont, December 1, 1837. His parents, Rodney and Maria (Easterly) Crosier, also natives of Vermont, moved to Stamford, Bennington county, about 1839, where the wife and mother died. In 1849, Mr. Crosier having been remarried, to Miss Rhoda Knowlton, of Williamstown, Massachusetts, moved to New Lyme, Ashtabula county, Ohio, his last move being in 1854, to Roseville, Warren county, Illinois. All his life has been passed in agricultural pursuits, and now at the advanced age of eighty-three years he still exercises a personal supervision over the management of his farm, a tract of 320 acres, on which he lives.

Rev. H. H. Crosier began teaching school at an early age, thus adding to the funds which secured his higher education at the Mount Morris Seminary, an institution then owned and governed by the Methodist Episcopal Church. There young Crosier pursued his theological studies, and at the age of eighteen years was licensed to preach. At twenty-one he joined the Central Illinois Conference, his first pastorate being at Spring Bay, followed in regular succession, according to the laws of the Methodist Church, with pastorates at Cappa, Dillon, Ellison, Blandville, Mount Church, South Fairbury and Sheldon, all central Illinois towns, his work at these places covering a period of twelve years.

He was married at Morton, Tazewell county, Illinois, December 20, 1860, to Miss Jennie Campbell, a lady of marked mental and moral qualities, a graduate of Knox College. She is a daughter of the late W. W. Campbell, a prominent farmer of that locality.

With the completion of his pastorate at Sheldon, on account of failing health, Mr. Crosier was obliged to seek a more equable climate, and in 1870, with his family, emigrated to Portland, Oregon, where the extremes of heat and cold are not severe. In 1872 he purchased six acres in what is now the town of Sunnyside, Portland, at that time there being few residents in this locality. The woods bordered him on the north, and wolves, deer and bears were occasionally seen here within one and one-half miles of the heart of Portland. Mr. Crosier engaged in the fruit business, setting out a variety of deciduous trees and some small fruits. In 1874, with somewhat improved health, he engaged in the real-estate business at East Portland, which he continued about four years, being the representative agent, and transacting nearly all the business in rentals, etc. In 1877 he bought sixty acres bordering on the Union Pacific railroad, which he has recently subdivided and laid out as Troutdale Park. In 1878 he returned to Illinois, and for one year served as pastor of the Zion and Wanpousett churches, and one year at Cameron, his children during this time enjoying the advantage of excellent school facilities. Returning to Portland in 1880, he took charge of the church at Lebanon for one year, and was one year at St. Helen. At the end of that time failing health again required his retirement and less active life. In the spring of 1887 Mr. Crosier subdivided his six acres, as Crosier's addition to East Portland, and in the fall of that year the adjoining lands were platted and the town of Sunnyside became a reality, and from the first has been rapidly developed, and is now a part and parcel of Portland proper.

Mr. and Mrs. Crosier have six children: Oney M., Eddy H., Emma M., William R., Cora B. and Arthur B. Emma M. is now the wife of Peter Schmeer, and Cora B. wife of James M. Smith, of the city of Portland. Mr. Crosier has been richly blessed in his family relation, death never having entered his home circle. He has just completed a commodious and handsome residence on Thirty-first and East Washington streets, where with his dear ones he lives a quiet, retired and happy life; and, as opportunity and health permits, he still engages, as he has in all these years, in the service of the church of his early choice.

 G. HARKINS, proprietor of the Eagle Marble Works, Portland, Oregon, is a native of Lancaster, Jefferson county, Indiana, born May 3, 1832.

His parents, George and Mary (Griffith) Harkins, natives of Pennsylvania, emigrated to Indiana about 1820, and built their house in the woods. Mr. Harkins often stood in his door and shot deer and other wild game. There he cleared land, and followed farming until his death. He and his wife had eleven children, ten of whom lived to maturity. T. G. Harkins was the ninth child in the family.

At the age of fifteen the subject of our sketch went to Covington, Kentucky, and there served an apprenticeship to the trade of stonecutter. He then worked as a journeyman at various places, and finally settled at Paris, Kentucky, where he opened a marble shop, and continued business until the opening of the Rebellion. At once joining the Union forces, he served all through the war in the Quartermaster's Department, passing through many skirmishes, but without accident to himself. In 1865 he went to Louisville, Kentucky, and was employed under Dr. John Speed, Postmaster, in general service until 1867, when he engaged with the Adams' Express Company, running as messenger between Louisville, Nashville and Memphis. Proving his adaptability and trustworthiness, he was subsequently put on the night run between Louisville and Seymour, Indiana, in charge of the money shipments, a position of great responsibility. On the night of May 22, 1868, the train was "held up" at the water tank, near Marshfield, by the Reno gang. The engineer and fireman were knocked off the engine, and the express car was uncoupled from the train and rapidly pulled out. The robbers then broke into the express car, knocked Mr. Harkins senseless with a car coupler, and threw him from the train, after which they broke open the safe and secured $100,000. Mr. Harkins was picked up and taken home, and for twelve days lay unconscious. Upon his recovery he accompanied Pinkerton's detectives, and they

VETERAN PASTOR DEAD

REV. HALBERT H. CROSBIE TO BE BURIED TOMORROW.

Services Will Be at Sunnyside Church—Life Record Is That of Prohibitionist.

Rev. Halbert H. Crosbie, a well-known and much-loved minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, who retired from active duty in 1870, when he left the central Illinois conference, where his active work in the pulpit was done, died November 24 at the family residence, 94 East Thirty-fifth street. Funeral services will be held in Sunnyside church, where he has long been a member, tomorrow at 1:30 P. M. Services at the grave will be private.

His life he had been an ardent prohibitionist, and when the prohibition was accomplished he was greatly pleased. He was active in the work of his church and had a wide circle of friends. He never transferred his connection with the central Illinois conference, being a member of it at the time of his death. He was born in Somerset, Vt., De-

Rev. Halbert H. Crosbie, veteran Methodist minister, whose funeral is to be held tomorrow.

September 1, 1837. He was ordained as a minister in the central Illinois conference at the age of 21. He was active in the ministry until 1870, at which time he moved to Oregon, taking up his residence in Portland, where he resided up to the time of his death. He was not in robust health during the latter years of his life, but devoted himself to the work of the church.

He was married to Jennie Campbell in Morton, Ill., December 29, 1860, and she survives him. Four sons and two daughters also survive, they being O. M. Crosbie, of Juneau, Alaska; El H. Crosbie, of San Diego, Cal.; W. R. Crosbie, of Gresham, Or.; A. B. Crosbie, of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. E. M. Schmeier, of Portland, and Mrs. C. B. Smith, of Portland.

Warrenton's water consumption is likely to rise sharply soon, Baldwin said, from projected construction of a $124 million aluminum reduction plant by Northwest Aluminum Company, and a residential development on Clatsop Plains planned by Loch Hamen Highlands Corp. Present consumption averages 2 million gallons daily, but reaches 4 million gallons or higher in the fishing season when canneries are operating.

3 Turner Posts Sought By Five

TURNER (Special) — A five-way race is on for three positions on Turner City Council.

Two incumbents, Orin Schollian and Gene Lee, are seeking re-election while Lawrence Bower has declined to accept nomination for another term.

Other candidates for the four-year posts are Gene Streight, Cascade High School teacher; Guy Armstrong, Turner Memorial Home employee; and Ellmore J. Gilstrap, a retired minister.

Mayor Ray Grim, completing a two-year term, is unopposed for re-election as mayor.

Moments With the Muse

THE TEACHER—A REALITY

Woods was still—the air was chill—
 Wandered near a lonely hill,
 And faintly sweet as in a dream
 I heard the murmur of a stream.
 I found an ancient woody trail,
 And tramped on o'er hill, through vale.
 As still I tramped till twilight gray,
 I heard soft music far away;
 I hearkened while it thrilled my soul—
 Then thought to make its source my goal.
 With haste I sought the distant hill:
 The melody was fainter still;
 Its mystic charmed denied to me
 The beauty of reality.

The night fell fast—I turned toward home
 Through shadows weird and strange to roam,
 And as I journeyed far and long
 Forgot my quest of evening song.
 Then through the blackness of the night
 Behold! a beam of distant light!
 I paused—again I heard that song
 For which I'd searched in vain so long.
 I hurried onward toward the light:
 Driest music clothed the night;
 In melody and rhythmic trill
 With every step 'twas richer still.
 At last I stood without the gate—
 Nor dared intrude at hour so late.
 But stood with soul enraptured there
 As harmony entranced the air.
 Well knew I that I'd reached my goal—
 I listened to an artist's soul;
 Nor cared to venture then inside—
 My craving heart was satisfied.

The echo from the distant hill
 Could never satisfy or fill;
 I left me searching longingly
 Until I found reality.
 I saw a teacher with a rod;
 I saw her narrow record god;
 I saw her kill a youthful soul
 To reach an artificial goal;
 I saw her bound by book and rule—
 I saw her prison in her school;
 I saw her pupils' hungry eyes
 Still searching, starving for surprise;
 I saw their love unheeded, too
 While each small face more pensive grew.

I saw a stern work and never play;
 A danger through all the day,
 Imagination played no part—
 Was curbed in every tiny heart.
 The thoughtful child was made a rogue—
 The cramming process was in vogue.
 No place for stories sweet and old,
 For stories rare and pure and gold;
 For rhymes to charm the little mind
 And make it love the good and kind;
 No place to dramatize or play
 Or make work joy through the day;
 'Twas drudgery from nine till three—
 'Twas deadening with monotony.
 My little tale is near complete—
 The teacher suffered sore defeat
 As she who struggled through the years
 With willing soul and hidden tears.

There was an echo from the hill
 That could not satisfy or fill;
 She was an echo I repeat—
 Her life was marked with sore defeat.

There was a teacher's friendly smile:
 'Twas known for many a lonely mile.
 I saw her greet a child at play
 And knew that smile had crowned his day.
 I saw her work—the child did not—
 His work was free from drudgery's blot.
 Until I knew it was her secret key:
 She used it very skillfully.
 She knew the charm of childish play
 And made it serve her every day.
 She knew the child her chief concern
 And made him feel a need to learn:
 She taught him stories rare and old—
 The sweetest stories ever told.
 And fairy queens and magic lands
 And little folks on foreign strands;
 She told him picaresque and sing, and play
 She taught him beautiful and gay;
 She kept him merrily and rhyme
 And kept him happy all the time.
 She brought each childish soul to know
 That might might help it richer grow.
 Her children's hearts were gay and bright—
 Their hours in school were sheer delight.
 She could tell the teacher how
 How charming, rich reality!

There was the mystic bowl—
 Years before me roll:
 The classic, women grown:
 They are men—their childhood flown.
 There was the child with hungry heart
 And of every sort of art;
 There was the joy of youth,
 The joy of inspiring truth.

He is a man—I see his soul—
 'Tis narrow still—forgot its goal.
 From hand to mouth he seeks to live,
 Has naught to share and naught to give.
 His genius soul is dead and gone
 While still his physical lives on.
 Who hurt his soul that fails so fast?
 He is an echo of his past!
 I see a child with life content:
 With inclination "caseward" bent—
 I see his energies adroitly
 Alive with keenness of desire.
 I see him led to live and learn—
 Made for vitality to yearn.
 I see him grown to manhood grand,
 An honor to his native land.
 I see him as a learned one
 With brave career but just begun,
 His body strong; his spirit kind;
 To match the fineness of his mind.
 I see him rearing children fair
 And know their heritage is rare.
 I feel his soul expanded, grown—
 It will achieve at last its own!

And as I search the magic bowl:
 See rich or blighted every soul;
 As in my heart of hearts I know
 Some teacher helped to make them so—
 I pray that God will help me see
 What kind of teacher I must be!

Edith Coleman Lilly, Tillamook, Ore.

MOTHER'S WAY

Off within our little cottage,
 As the shadows gently fall,
 While the sunlight touches softly
 One sweet face upon the wall,
 Do we gather close together
 And in hushed and tender tone,
 Ask each other's full forgiveness
 For the wrong that each hath done.
 Should you wonder why this custom
 At the ending of the day,
 Eye and voice so quickly answer:
 "It was once our mother's way."

If our home be bright and cheery,
 If it holds a welcome guest,
 Opening wide its doors of greeting
 To the many—not the few;
 If we share our Father's bounty
 With the needy day by day,
 'Tis because our hearts remember
 This was ever mother's way.

Sometimes when our hands grow weary
 Or our task seems very long;
 When our burden looms too heavy
 And we deem the right all wrong;
 Then we gain a new, fresh courage,
 And we rise to proudly say:
 "Let us do our duty bravely—
 This was our dear mother's way."

—Rev. Abram J. Ryan.

A LILAC BUSH

If you stole the tint of a sunset sky
 When rose to amethyst turned,
 If you caught the gleam in mother-of-pearl
 While maye and lavenders burned,
 If you pressed the hues from a thousand Blooms
 Of the royal fleurs-de-lis,
 Or held the empurpling shadows that lie
 On a deepening twilight sea;
 You never could fashion so fair a thing
 As rises from earth's gray tomb,
 With the magical touch of Spring's light hand—
 A lilac bush in bloom.

—Elizabeth A. Thomas.

God sent flowers to beautify
 The earth and cheer man's careful mood;
 And he is happier who has power
 To gather wisdom from a flower
 And wake his heart in every hour
 To pleasant gratitude.

—Mary Howitt.

Stay, stay at home, my heart, and rest;
 Home-keeping hearts are happiest,
 For 'tis the wanderer they know not where
 Are full of trouble and full of care;
 To stay at home is best.

—Lonsfellow.

PRAYER OF THANKFULNESS

I thank thee, Father, for this night of rest,
 And for my eager soul, that goes in quest
 Of work to do "in pastures new."
 Today—and every day!
 I thank thee for the rising sun,
 And for the many tasks not yet begun;
 I thank thee for my body new,
 And for my soul refreshed, I thank thee, too,
 Today—and every day!
 I thank thee that I am immortal,
 And that I am alive to-day,
 And I thank thee for the world's awakening,
 To Love, and Life, and Health, today,
 Today—and every day!
 Amen.

Abby Hedge Corvett

LIFE'S BEST RENOWN

I'd like to be more brave and true,
 When days are dark or skies are gray;
 I'd like to always say and do
 The worthy things along life's way;
 I'd like to have the needed strength,
 When roads are extra rough or long,
 To gladly go the farthest length,
 With cherry smile and hopeful song.

I'd like to be in thought and deed
 Each day more gentle and more kind,
 More swift to see another's need,
 And to another's faults more blind;
 I'd like to help the old and weak,
 And bring new hope to those forlorn;
 I'd like the words I daily speak
 To bless and comfort some who mourn.

I'd like to have it thought of me
 That I am honest and sincere,
 And then when duty's path I see
 I travel it without a fear;
 I do not long for glory's crown
 Or deeds beyond my normal view;
 For I believe life's best renown
 Lies in the things that I can do.

—Author Unknown.

METHUSELAH

Methuselah ate what he found on his plate
 And never, as people do now,
 Did he note the amount of calorie count—
 He ate it because it was chow.
 He wasn't disturbed as at dinner he sat
 Destroying a roast or a pie,
 To think it was lacking in lime or in fat
 Or a couple of vitamins shy.
 He cheerfully chewed every species of food,
 Untroubled by worries or fears
 Lest his health might be hurt by some fancy Dessert.
 And he lived over nine hundred years!

—Medical Sentinel.

FREEDOM

Is true Freedom but to break
 Fetters for our own dear sake,
 And, with leather hearts, forget
 That we owe mankind a debt?
 No! true freedom is to share
 All the chains our brothers wear,
 And, with heart and hand, to be
 Earnest to make others free!

They are slaves who fear to speak
 For the fallen and the weak;
 They are slaves who will not choose
 Hatred, scoffing and abuse,
 Rather than in silence shrink
 From the truth they needs must think;
 They are slaves who dare not be
 In the right with two or three.

—James Russell Lowell.

CONSPICUOUS

Farmer boy, farmer boy, where have you been!
 I've been to the city some shekels to win.
 Farmer boy, farmer boy, what saw you there!
 Girls with knee skirts, red lips and bobbed hair.

THE CLOUDS

The clouds shut out the mountain-peaks
 And shut the stars away
 And so we cling to the little thing
 Along the valley way,
 But he who lives on the mountain-peak
 No blur is on his eye.
 For the clouds are all below him
 And the stars are in the skies.

If only myself could talk to myself,
 As I know him a year ago,
 I could tell him a lot,
 That would save him a lot,
 Of the things he ought to know.
